salaried employees; John Lewandowski, Patternmakers' League of North America; Clarence Shemwell, International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers; W. P. Donovan, assistant works manager; and Kelly. Not shown are William Wachter, salaried workers, and James Smith, Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

United Way at 28%

The Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign hit $123,024, or 28.9 per cent of the $425,000 goal, at the first report luncheon yesterday held in the YMCA auditorium.

A. H. Froelich of the Business Division reported $17,437 or 61 per cent of that division's quota; Robert Edmonds, Civic Division, $12,731 or 48.4 per cent; Melvin Wilmanmeyer, Professional, $5,481 or 33.6 per cent.

James Foley, Madison-Venice, $3,774 or 33.3 per cent; Mrs. Mary Tarporff, Mail-Phone, $4,630 or 32.4 per cent; Robert Gobert, Construction, $3,150 or 30.1 per cent. Robert Buerger, Industrial Division, $7,231 or 21.8 per cent; and John Blasingame, Commercial Division, $3,570 or 18.1 per cent.

Special honors went to the Granite City plant and employees of the American Steel Foundries, with 142 per cent of last year's joint contribution.

General chairman of the October 1974 campaign to help finance the 18 member agencies in 1975 is George Pulianes, vice president-administration of Granite City Steel.

He was in Houston yesterday, and the "Dutch treat" gathering was presided over by the United Way president, Paul H. Kelly, Granite City plant manager of the A. O. Smith Corp.

Humorous awards were given out by Harold Rudolph, YMCA executive director. Kelly cited the impact of inflation on United Way agencies' costs, and urged generous pledges to the yearly drive. Payroll deduction programs are a key way of assuring long-range United Way backing, he commented.

Madison classes resume

Relative calm returned to Madison High School Wednesday after two days of disturbances which led to school being closed shortly after the starting bell Tuesday.

The Madison Board of Education held hearings on 15 suspended students last night and allowed all of them to return to school on probation. Hearings for 10 more students are to be held tomorrow night and the remainder will appear for hearings Monday night.

All but about 100 students are in school today and classes are functioning normally, officials said.

A fight developed at Madison High School at 8:10 a.m. Friday between four students at the time school buses were arriving, attracting other students and people from the neighborhood.

Police were called to disperse several school dropouts and others. The crowd quickly left the scene as school began.

Absenteeism was reported by Supt. John Palchick to be between 120 and 150 students. A few parents came to the school to take their children out due to exaggerated reports of the incident, the superintendent said.

School officials said there were no other incidents during the day.

Officials then hoped the three-day Columbus Day holiday period would give students a "cooling off" period, but tension began to build as students arrived near the school Tuesday morning and congregated across Farish Street from the school.

The group across the street from the school became all white, as black students began moving inside the fence around the school.

Three buses of students arrived from the West Madison area at about 8:15 a.m. and the students joined others inside the school fence.

Madison police arrived quickly as students began yelling names across the street at each other, and Madison County sheriff's deputies were summoned for assistance.

Granite City and Venice squad cars also converged on the scene and, within 10 minutes, 10 police cars filled the space between the two groups of students.

Each group told Supt. Palchick it would not enter the school until the other group did. The standoff continued past the 8:30 a.m. starting time for classes Tuesday. Only a few students watched from inside the school, the majority being outside.

Several minor incidents of students being pushed were reported, but apparently none of the students suffered injury.

At 8:40 a.m., a rock or brick was thrown across Farish Street toward the school and rebounded from the side of a parked car containing several black students.

At 8:55 a.m., an announcement was made over the school's public address system, including an outdoor speaker, that school was closed for the day.

The three buses returned and black students boarded for the return to their homes.

As soon as the buses left, students on the east side of Farish Street began walking toward the school, saying they now would attend classes. But they were turned back by Palchick, who said, "Go home. There will be no school today." Students dispersed within a few minutes, but police were called to the 1900 block of Skeen Street as another fight developed between a few white students.

Palchick said he felt many of those causing trouble Tuesday were among about 30 students suspended by Principal Richard Corbin after Friday's fight. The suspensions were effective Tuesday morning and the students should not have been near the school, the superintendent said.

Palchick said he did not want to close school Tuesday but

20¢ price due to newsprint cost

The price of the Press-Record — unchanged for more than 3½ years — will rise from the present 15 cents to 20 cents effective today, Oct. 17.

The main reason is the cost of newsprint. Newspapers are printed on blank paper rolls resembling gigantic adding-machine tapes. About eight ounces of this precious, shortage-plagued commodity go into an average Press-Record edition.

A year ago, a ton of newsprint cost $172. The current price of $234 will climb to $259 on Jan. 1. In this short period alone, the change from $172 to $259 is a rise of over 50 per cent, or several cents for each copy of each issue.

This fact alone makes a price change unavoidable.

The cost of preparing and placing printed matter on the blank paper also has gone up sharply, just as inflation has affected all other businesses and every family in the nation. Ink is costlier, as are supplies, equipment, wages, fuel, shipping and warehousing.

Much of the price increase will be applied to meet these higher costs. There also will be substantial improvement of the portion that goes to individual carriers and to motor route operators.

A 20-cent price has been adopted by many newspapers in the U. S. In the case of the twice-weekly Press-Record, the rise from 15 to 20 cents will cost readers an extra dime a week — a smaller impact than when a daily paper boosts its price.

The Monday and Thursday issues will continue to provide the news and the advertising values of the entire seven-day week. With each issue averaging over 40 pages during the course of the year, Press-Record readers get a big product, larger in average size than that of any other newspaper in the Madison-St. Clair Counties area.

Store robbed

Three men, one armed with a sawed-off shotgun, stole about $360 during a robbery at The Dollar Store, 314 State St., at 3:50 p.m. Tuesday.

The men entered, one showed the gun and said, "Give us your money." They took cash totaling about $360 from under a service counter and from the cash register, including about $50 in change.

William Harrison, manager, then was told to lie down on the floor and one robber placed his foot on Harrison's back. The gunman asked a customer, William Morford, 2715 E. 24th St., to give him Morford's wallet. The gunman took about $60 from the wallet and then demanded Morford's car keys. One robber grabbed Morford, saying he was going to use him as a hostage, but let him go when another robber said to "forget it."

The three men then left in Morford's auto, leaving a car parked in front of the store which police believe was used by the robbers as they arrived. The car was towed to the Madison Police Department

The hearing at SIUE was the third held in the state, the others having been conducted in Chicago and Peoria.

AQMA areas are defined by the Illinois EPA as areas in which air pollution controls levels may exceed allowable levels by 1985, unless additional controls are implemented.

Also testifying at Tuesday's hearing was Richard B. Parker, associate professor of biology at SIUE, who said a blanket AQMA designation should be avoided.

He said proposed boundaries should be drawn as carefully as possible, based on available data.

Parker said that if the three-

A. O. Smith earnings down

Strikes and inflation combined to cause a loss, of $1,288,000 or $2.26 per share, in the third quarter of A. O. Smith Corporation, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, reported Wednesday in Milwaukee.

In the third quarter last year, the company earned $742,000, or $1.15 per share.

Sales in the quarter were $128,000,000, compared with $139,000,000 a year ago. For the first nine months of the year, the company earned $4,227,000, or $3.36 per share, compared with earnings of $11,741,000, or $2.38 per share, in the first nine months of 1973. Nine month sales this year were $415,282,000, compared with $401,772,000 last year, Smith said.

While price increases have been instituted in nearly all product lines throughout the corporation, in some cases they were not large enough, because of competitive factors and contractual obligations, to keep up with rapidly rising costs. This problem was particularly severe in the company's electric motor and elevator business, both of which operated at a loss in the third quarter.

Smith said he expects some improvement in profit margins in the fourth quarter as the price increases work their way through the backlogs.

In addition, Smith said the third quarter was hurt by a three-week strike by 6,200 employees at the company's Milwaukee automotive frame plant, the first such strike in the company's 100-year history, and by a strike which has idled 850 employees since Aug. 12 at an electric motor plant in Mount Sterling, Ky.

The strike reduced sales in the quarter at both the Automotive division and Electric Motor Division compared with a year ago, while shipments at Armor Elevator were reduced from the same period in 1973 because construction activity was hampered by material shortages and other industry-wide problems.

All other operating units posted sales increases in the third quarter compared with 1973.

'Streaking rules' called a false campaign issue

Louis Whitsell, supervisor of Nameoki Township, Wednesday disclaimed allegations made Tuesday night that he had signed and allowed to be reproduced on township equipment a memo to township employees setting mock guidelines for "streaking" in the office.

The Town Board meeting Tuesday night, a woman township resident showed auditors a photocopy of a two-page memo of "rules for streaking" which was on Nameoki Township stationery and appeared to be signed with a facsimile of Whitsell's signature, also reproduced.

Streaking as used in the letter, refers to someone running nude through the township office, which has never happened. The wording of such letters is believed to have been used as a joke in many offices since this spring, when streaking was a fad on some college campuses.

The woman who presented the copy of the letter to the town board alleged, "That's what he (Whitsell) does in his spare time."

Auditor Eugene Gargac responded that he did not approve of the letter or of township time or money being used to type it and reproduce it.

Referring to the alleged use of the photocopy machine to reproduce it, Gargac said, "Whoever ran it off should be reprimanded. The taxpayers should not be paying for this. This is utter nonsense, really."

He noted that the letter was written on old stationery the township has discontinued using, but noted the paper still belongs to the township and could have been used for a meaningful purpose.

Whitsell was not present at Tuesday night's meeting but responded Wednesday morning.

"I have never seen the letter. I still have not seen it."

"I never signed it and I understand it is on stationery we discontinued in 1971."

Commenting that a woman brought the letter to the attention of the town auditors, Whitsell added that, there has been some turnover among the office staff. One lady was dismissed about two years ago, he recalled.

Whitsell said he asked all township women when they came to town hall if they had ever seen the letter or typed it, and said they told him they had not.

The supervisor charged that the issue is a political one. He alleged that his opponents had manufactured the letter and placed his signature on it because, "They are trying to make me look like a dirty old man."

Whitsell is running for reelection to the District 26 seat on the Madison County Board in the November general election. His opponents are Mrs. Helen Hawkins and Michael Bradley Briggs.

The supposed streaking regulations relates that female employees may streak on odd-numbered days, male workers on even-numbered days and all employees on payday.

A long list of purported rules includes permission for junior executives to carry briefcases while streaking, and for girls to wear jewelry. Men are admonished to wear neckties.

SCHOOL DISMISSAL at Madison High School Tuesday was necessitated by a confrontation between two groups of students which school officials felt might degenerate into something more dangerous. Madison police here disperse students after halting a fight in the 1900 block of Skeen Street near the school Tuesday, moments after classes were dismissed. Classes resumed Wednesday.

Jury begins deliberations on rail thefts

A federal jury in Alton resumed deliberations about 10 a.m. today of evidence against 10 men charged with stealing items worth more than $1.7 million from railroad cars in the Terminal Railroad Association's Madison switching yards. None of the defendants now on trial are from the Quad-City area.

In closing arguments yesterday, the government reviewed the evidence it had presented, said it had showed there was a conspiracy to loot boxcars and that those involved had discussed the thefts at four taverns in Madison, Venice and Granite City.

The government also alleged there was an unequal sharing of the loot. "None of these people was an angel. They weren't anyone cheating each other," an attorney for the government stated.

Defense Attorney Lance Cullis of Granite City noted the government evidence lacked fingerprints to link the stolen items with the accused men. Other defense attorneys warned jurors that many of those who testified for the government already have admitted lying to the grand jury and to the FBI. The jury deliberated several hours last night before recessing at about 10:15 p.m.

Venice ok's development pact

A resolution establishing a cooperative agreement between the city of Venice and Madison County under the new federal Housing and Community Act was approved by the Venice City Council in regular meeting Tuesday night.

The resolution will qualify the city to participate in funds expected to be made available through the county government. A meeting to explain details of the act and the manner in which it affects municipalities is expected to be held soon, the council was told.

The council also approved a resolution declaring a residence in the 1200 block of Market Street and recommending that the property be restored or demolished.

Building permits were approved for Benton Overton, 512 Washington Ave., for addition of a porch and general repairs at a cost of $1,000, and to Albert Pace, 1225 Klein St., for construction of a storage shed at a cost of $300.

Chief Police Ralph Brawley reported a total of 31 adult and explained, "I did not want to precipitate into something more dangerous."

The fight was quickly stopped by police. There were no arrests.

Palechek met with the school's teachers from 9 a.m. to about 10:30 a.m. to discuss plans for the next day. On Tuesday afternoon, he and Principal Corbin met with Madison Chief of Police Frank Dutko to work out coordination between school officials and police.

At 6 p.m. Tuesday, the superintendent met with the school's Human Relations Advisory Committee, comprised primarily of parents, and at 7 p.m. he met with the Madison Board of Education in executive session to review plans.

Palechek announced his plans, saying, "From now on, we will have school. Parents will be in the school tomorrow and we will lock the gates after the (starting) bell rings."

"Those still outside when the gates are closed will be turned away and we will let the police handle them. The police will be ready," Palechek concluded.

About 30 parents of both races appeared at the school Wednesday morning to aid school officials. Madison and Venice police and county deputies already were on the scene when students arrived, and had blocked French Street from Sixth Street to Skeen Street, in front of the school.

Students entered the school quickly and quietly as they arrived. At 8:20 a.m. Wednesday announcement was made for all students to report to their fourth hour classes and wait for the starting bell. The West Madison buses arrived at 8:32 a.m., just after the official opening of school, and drove quickly into the school parking area, close to the school where students got off near a door. The students entered the school quickly without incident.

Attendance was down Wednesday, with about 150 to 200 students absent, according to Superintendent Palechek. He said about 350 to 400 students of both races were in classes.

Palechek reported the school was relatively calm Wednesday, and said, "There was nothing of a serious nature here today." He praised the parents who helped keep order in the school, adding, "They did a terrific job, as did the school personnel."

Plans were to follow the same guidelines today and tomorrow as those used yesterday, with officers present as students arrive. Doors will be closed at 8:30 a.m. and the gates also will close, with those still outside being marked as truant. "Police will allow no loitering," it was stressed.

Parents also are to be in the school today and tomorrow as usual in keeping peace.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME
Fire, which started in the bathroom, caused about $2,500 damage to the home of Lyle Porter, 1805 Market St., Madison, Tuesday. Madison firemen were on the scene from 3:25 p.m. until 3:45 p.m.

Youth faces five charges

Richard Stemmer, 19, of 611 Fleming Place, Mitchell, was arrested at Madison Avenue and Nameoki Road at 1 a.m. today and was charged with driving while under the influence of narcotics, possession of a controlled substance, resisting arrest, reckless driving and leaving the scene of an arrest.

A white auto was involved in a hit and run accident in the 2900 block of Washington Ave., and the car left south, on Washington. A damaged white car was found on a parking lot at Madison Avenue and Nameoki Road and a man was observed staggering in front of the car, police reported.

Stemmer was arrested after police alleged they saw him try to put something under the hood of the car. A paper bag containing pills and containers of liquid were found in one of his pockets, officers alleged.

Reports being refused beer

Joe Henry, Brooklyn, a retired professional baseball player who has played with such athletes as Henry Aaron, was refused when he sought to buy beer to take out Tuesday afternoon at a State Street tavern, he and Madison authorities said. Henry said he was not being drinking.

He was in the neighborhood to obtain photo enlargements for use with an autobiography he is now writing.

He said he was told by the tavern proprietor that "there are too many problems at the high school" when he asked why he was not being served. The operator later told an officer that he "doesn't serve the kind of people."

Henry said he is considering filing suit.

St. Clair seeks new center

An effort by St. Clair County to secure construction of a new Convention Center in that county has been initiated by Francis Touchette, chairman of the St. Clair County Board. Touchette said he will attempt to "get across the message that St. Clair County is the ideal site for the new center."

State Sen. Sam Vadalabene, D-Edwardsville, who sponsors legislation which permits construction of the center, is backing a site on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Touchette said two St. Clair County sites already have been proposed—one on U.S. 460 across from the Our Lady of the Snows Shrine. The other is a site in Fairview Heights "where free land is offered by persons I cannot now name," Touchette said.

Trustees at Southern Illinois University have voted to donate land on the campus for construction of the center.

News Notes

A drug control bill containing repeal of the no-knock arrest law was passed by the Senate yesterday and sent to President Gerald Ford. A 1970 law had authorized federal judges to issue warrants allowing federal agents to break into homes unannounced for searches where it was believed the drugs would be found. Agents would be endangered by knocking.

Pres. Ford on Tuesday signed into a law a bill providing matching federal aid for Presidential primary candidates who raise $100,000 in under-$250 contributions from people in at least 20 states.

The State Board of Elections was ordered Tuesday by Circuit Judge Paul Verticchio of Carlinville to change its rules that allow some political committees to escape requirements of the Illinois Campaign Disclosure Act. Ruling on a suit filed by Attorney General William J. Scott, the judge said the board's loose interpretation conflicts with the law.

New projections given Tuesday by the Ralph M. Parsons Co. consulting firm suggest that Lambert Airport passenger use through 1985 may be less than half of what earlier was predicted for 1990. But they do forecast that passengers will almost double by 1985 and almost quadruple by 1995. Some residents of the Waterloo, Ill., area opposed that site for a new airport at a meeting of the Parsons report last night in Berkeley, Mo.

School smoking areas proposed

A "youth madate" outlining what a cross-section of young people in Illinois think is right and wrong with their environment and institutions has been presented to Gov. Dan Walker at a ceremony in the governor's office. Recommendations include "smoking areas" in high schools.

The product of nine months of work by young people from all over the state, the 12-page document was given to the governor by seven youngsters who took part in the Youth Mandate Workshop held last May in Jacksonville.

Beginning last fall, a series of regional youth workshops were held by the Community Services Unit of the Illinois Department of Corrections, in which nearly 7,000 young men and women of all racial and ethnic backgrounds and economic strata came together to talk about what they thought was wrong with the "system," and how they thought it could be made better.

Out of these initial workshops, the youngsters selected 500 delegates to attend eight "summary" workshops in which the many thoughts and ideas of the original delegates were reduced to working papers on philosophy and plans for the future.

Representatives from these eight workshops were then picked by their peers to attend the Youth Mandate Workshop in Jacksonville.

The Youth Mandate presented to the governor is entirely the product of the youngsters and was not edited or changed in any way. The Department of Corrections faithfully reproduced the final draft submitted by the youngsters.

The young people concluded that:

Any issues involving human sexuality should be left to the individual to decide without interference.

Sex education ought to be taught in coeducational settings. There is an unhealthy over-emphasis on winning and competing. Marijuana sales and possession should be decriminalized, but sales and use of other drugs should remain present restrictions. Retain sales taxes should be used to finance research on other drugs.

Communities should set up Youth Service Bureaus to help students with personal, social and legal problems. Abortion used as a population control device is "abominable." Sex education should start in the second grade, with periodic discussions of the differences between males and females. Schools should set aside smoking areas for those who wish to smoke cigarettes.

And, the high school students concluded, women should have equal opportunities in all education and extracurricular school programs.

Enroll in pharmacy college

A record 730 students registered at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy for the fall semester, according to President Charles C. Rabe. This is the largest enrollment in the 110-year history of the college. Among those enrolling as freshmen in the five-year course which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy were:

Karen Kay Greathouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greathouse, Sunny Shores Mobile Estates, Granite City, a 1974 graduate of Northwest High School, House Springs, Mo.; Jeff Luehmann, 4524 Edwardsville Road, a 1974 graduate of Granite City High North; and Albert Daniel Pelate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pelate, 2873 Stratford Lane, also a 1974 graduate of Granite City High North.

The enrollment marks an 8.5 per cent increase over a year ago and a 66 per cent increase over 10 years ago. The number of women at the College represents 29 per cent of the total; ten years ago they comprised 7 per cent of the enrollment.

Rabe indicated that enrollments in most colleges of pharmacy across the nation have been increasing in recent years and this may be attributed in part to the fact that unemployment in the profession is almost negligible in most areas. He also stated that the possibility of a national health plan should create an even greater demand for pharmacists in the future.

The St. Louis College of Pharmacy, founded in 1864, is an independent institution and is the only college of pharmacy within a radius of 250 miles. The four-acre campus is located at Buckle Avenue and Parkview Place in the west end medical area of the city.

ILLINOIS...

WITH
JOHN H. KEISER
HISTORIAN
SANGAMON STATE UNIVERSITY

THE WONDROUS STORY: ILLINOIS

"Not without thy wondrous story, can be writ the nation's glory, Illinois... Illinois."

The state song gives Illinois a leading role in the American parade. Why? What is there about Illinois that makes it unique, important, deserving study?

It is almost a cliché that Illinois is the crossroads of the nation. As all roads once led to Rome, so do rail lines now lead to Chicago. From the days when French and English played out their empires in the Mississippi Valley through the westward migration of Southerners up the Cumberland trail and Yankees across the Great Lakes, Illinois has been at the center. A state bounded by water on three sides, it became both the enclosed receptacle of thousands of immigrants and the open door to the far west.

The coming and going of peoples, a geography combining both rich prairie and worthless clay and the rise of the nation's Second City made the prairie crossroads a state of unparalleled diversity. It is a state of Grangers and pork kings, the world's first skyscraper and Frank Lloyd Wright's Prairie House; a state half urban, half rural, half northern, half southern, half foreign, half native. It is the state of Adlai Stevenson and the Chicago Tribune, Al Capone and Clarence Darrow.

That diversity insures that the great conflicts in American history will be played out on a grand scale in Illinois; that it will be a passionately political state swinging from one party to another as these forces contend for both power and compromise. It is a state where we can expect abolitionists, copperheads, suffragettes, the University of Chicago and the Pullman Strike.

One other element gives Illinois its unique flavor. It is the Land of Lincoln. License plates proclaim it: commerce exploits it. The Lincoln legend—rural, democratic, humane—is the touchstone of state history. Jane Addams adapted the best of it to fit conditions in urban slums. John Peter Altgeld adapted the best of it to the realities of government in an industrial age; Carl Sandburg and Vachel Lindsay gave it poetic expression. It is there in the collective state mind: Lincoln, Lincoln, Lincoln.

Illinois is railroad depots, coal mines, conflicts extending to the horizon, the John Hancock building, the Baha'i Temple and the Bethel Baptist Church. It parallels and encapsulates the history of America as more homogeneous states with less central geographical and ideological bases: do not it is Hull House and Haymarket Square, Spoon River and Bloody Williamson. It is Illinois, Land of Lincoln.

Composition sections scheduled

Special sections of freshman composition will be offered at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville during the winter quarter. The sections are designed for students preparing for careers in business, science, theater, and education, as well as adults in the area who wish to review writing techniques.

Objectives of the course are to develop writing ability, teach the practical application of basic writing techniques, and train students in basic research methods. The sections are open to students who have completed the first quarter of composition.

Another special section of freshman composition will be geared to needs of mature students who have been out of school for several years. While this class is available for any student who feels the need for basic review of grammar and composition, it is particularly designed for older students entering the university for the first time. David Butler, director of freshman English at SIUE, said:

An honors section of second quarter freshman composition also will be offered during the winter quarter. This course is for students who have demonstrated exceptional composition skills and an ability to work independently.

Bethalto hopes to spoil perfect Steeler record

"We are out of the race," says Bethalto grid member Gary McMillen of his 2-4 record Eagles. "The pressure is on Granite City North now, so we are looking at the game as a challenge to upset an undefeated team."

McMillen's gridders are preparing to host the 6-0 Steelers of North at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Bethalto.

"If we can force them to pass," remarks McMillen, "instead of letting them pass, we might have a chance."

But, to date, no school has been fully able to force the Steelers to do anything they do not want to do.

North's defense has not been scored upon in rushing, while holding opponents to 422 yards on the ground. Enemy teams have scored 46 points.

The Steeler offense has racked up 996 yards on the ground and 661 yards in the air and has a six-game total of 129 points.

The Eagles play ground control and are averaging 150 to 160 yards a game under the leadership of Quarterback Rich Wassman, a 5-foot-11, 165-pound junior.

Junior letterman Larry Luckner heads the rushing, averaging a torrid 100 yards a game.

Both GCHS North and Bethalto utilize a five-man defensive front averaging 180-205 pounds per player.

While North takes pride in having several backs capable of springing in all directions or of being on the receiving end of Quarterback Gene Logas passes, Bethalto places its confidence in not only its rushing but in a senior kicker named Charlie Sammis, 6-0, a 175-pound offensive end.

"He," remarks the Eagle mentor, "is extremely important to us inside the 30-yard line."

"His foot has kept us in many a ball game, even the ones we have lost."

Sammis's kicking proficiency gave his team a 3-0 victory over Wood River and was instrumental during the past weekend in Bethalto downing Triad 19-8.

McMillen said every game the Eagles have played has gone down to the final quarter to decide the victory. Bethalto has tied closely-contested games — 22-20 to Jerseyville, 30-20 to Highland, 14-9 to O'Fallon and 16-12 to Roxana.

Granite City North has defeated Roxana 31-0 and Wood River 28-0.

"We are just going to have to play super-ball against North," says McMillen, "and accept the challenge."

North Coach Tom Wyrstok is not saying much about the game except that "we should be in good shape and will definitely have to play hard-nosed football."

Noting the Steelers' winning performance against Assumption last Saturday, Wyrstok cited the entire team's effort for the victory. Logas had a tremendous passing game which netted nearly 200 yards.

"If you want to single out an individual," commented the coach, "it would have to be Larry Schleicher."

The six-foot junior end caught four passes for 136 yards and one touchdown. Schleicher also intercepted a Pioneer pass on his own 26-yard line and ran it back 40 yards.

Park bus for Blues hockey

The Granite City Park District will provide bus transportation to all St. Louis Blues home ice hockey games, beginning today, for area fans wishing to attend the events held at the Arena on Oakland Avenue.

The round-trip service will depart from the circle drive in front of Wilson Park's ice rink at the arena's main door at 7 p.m.

A park spokesman said at least 35 persons are needed each time to insure its success now and for the future. A $1.50 charge per person is necessary.

Persons may submit their names for the service by calling the park office at 877-3059.

Madison eleven next to tangle with Assumption

"What do we expect from Assumption?" asks Madison High Football Coach Al Vander Haar. "We expect to see a lot of Mr. Heavens."

The Trojans carry their 1-5 record to the Pioneers' grid field in East St. Louis at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in an attempt to post another victory. Madison won its first game since 1972 during the weekend at the expense of Dupu.

"This game has a lot of 'ifs' in it," commented Vander Haar. "If we hold down penalties, if we don't fumble excessively, and mainly if we stay out of the air."

If fans were to speculate that the game is likely to be an equal matchup—Assumption is 1-4-1 differently.

"They are a tough team," he noted, "but we have a plus in our favor. We don't have to rely on just one player in the backfield; they are going to have to stop all three of our backs."

Vander Haar was referring to 5-8 senior Joe Young, 5-10 senior Mike Stanley, and six-foot junior Dwight Chillas. All were instrumental, along with Quarterback Mike Woods, in Madison's 24-14 win over Dupu.

Young and Stanley, between them tallied 22 points. Young picked up 130 yards on 12 carries and Stanley 111 yards on 14 runs. Chillas added 16 yards. Chillas has gained 82 yards in 28 carries this season. Young has 300 yards on 65 carries, and Stanley has netted 210 yards on 39 carries.

Woods, calling the signals in place of injured Emmett Timmons, who is out for the season, is clicking all the way around. He is five of 19 in the air for 114 yards and is a scam-bler, rushing seven times for 33 yards.

As a team, Madison has equaled or nearly matched its opponents in several respects: 416-346 yards gained in the air; 205-276 rushing plays; 260-344 offensive plays; 328-240 tackles; and 808-1223 yards gained in rushing. MHS is averaging 20.4 yards per game to its foes' 22.3 yard average.

Assumption, in its 14-11 loss this past weekend to GCHS North, earned all its points on the performance of Heavens, a 205-pound senior running back who in 1974 has scored 63 points.

"You don't gear an offense around one player," said Vander Haar, "unless you have a runner like O. J. Simpson—or Jerome Heavens."

"So it simply boils down to one thing," he adds. "Stop Heavens and you can beat Assumption."

Run is postponed

Two high school cross-country meets scheduled to take place Tuesday were not held.

An East St. Louis and GCHS South meet was canceled. A meet between Roxana and GCHS North was postponed until 4 p.m. tomorrow and will be a triangular with Wood River; it will be held at Roxana.

GCHS NORTH QUALIFIER. Senior Tim Behrens is the representative of his school in tomorrow's golf sectional at the Arlington Golf Course here. Behrens qualified as an individual by scoring a 79 in the Wood River district tournament.

North golf loss

The golfing Steelers of Granite City North wrapped up their 1974 fall season with a 5-14-1 record after being defeated 160-175 by Mascoutah Tuesday at the Scott Air Base golf course.

Three players had identical scores of 62. They were Tim Behrens, Dave Dodson and Bob Behrens. Brian Winfield posted a 49.

Steelers top Kahoks — but lose at Alton

Stan Seel, tied the contest at 1-1 with a goal early in the second half of a game in soccer competition Tuesday at Alton, but the Redbirds retaliated with one of their own to win 2-1.

GCHS North is 1-3 on the season with the loss. On Monday, North won 2-1 at Collinsville. It was North's fourth straight victory over the Kahoks in two seasons of play.

"The loss to Alton," says Seel, "was mostly my fault." He said his players gained an easy 6-1 victory over Alton earlier in the season, so he started his second string players in the game.

"The backup crew played fine ball," recalls Seel, "but Alton's" varsity squad capitalized on its own experience."

North utilized the services of veteran goalie Rick Demaree and Centerback Dave Wolf as the only varsity starters in the first half at Alton.

"We were without the services of two of our starters," said Seel. "Dave Hatcher and Dave Robertson."

Hatcher was ill with a cold, and Robertson had just been released from St. Elizabeth's Hospital. He had been admitted at 10:05 p.m. Monday for observation with a head injury suffered in the Collinsville contest. His forehead was swollen after he collided with another player in the game.

North outshot Alton 9-3 and blanked the hosts 4-0 on corner kicks. Alton preserved the win with four saves while North was able to stop one Redbird shot.

At Collinsville, the Steelers held a 2-0 lead after three quarters on goals by Harvey Breckner and Hatcher. Wolf assisted on both.

North's defense performed flawlessly against Collinsville's attack until the final period, when the ball was sent sailing into the net for the final score.

Breckner scored first for the Steelers. Moving into the forward line, he took a head-high drive from Wolf, jumped into the air and back kicked it while in mid-air to score from 18 yards out.

Wolf, the third quarter, took a rebounding penalty kick at the sidelines and sent the ball airborne to the mouth of the goal for Hatcher to head it into the net.

Mike Anderson, a "rookie" goalie filling in for Demaree, was credited with saving eight of Collinsville's 16 shots on goal. A Kahok goalender blocked the same number of North's 13 shots.

North had five corner kicks and Collinsville four. The Steelers' error 14 times the Kahoks made only seven miscues.

Steelers sophs win 26-14 game

GCHS North's sophomore football squad defeated visiting Riverview Gardens, Mo., Tuesday by 26-14 in a contest held at the Grigsby Junior High Field.

North's Mickey Smith was the leading scorer with three touchdown runs — one yard, 34 yards and 73 yards. Joe O'Garra provided the other TD.

FRIDAY, Oct. 18
GCHS South at Alton (Southwestern Conference Meet) 4 p.m.

District girls' tennis to begin here Friday

Representatives of eight high school girls' tennis teams will meet at 7:30 p.m. today at Granite City High School South for player seeding and to develop a schedule for the 1974 Illinois High School Association girls' district tennis tournament to be held here starting at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

Because of problems of rain experienced last year, and because there are two more schools involved, the first round of matches will begin tomorrow instead of Saturday.

Courts at GCHS North, GCHS South and Wilson Park will be utilized, with all matches being held simultaneously.

The second round of competition will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday.

In the event weather prevents completion of either day's matches, play will resume at 1 p.m. Monday.

Entered in the district meet here are Cahokia, O'Fallon, both GCHS North and South, Collinsville and three Belleville High Schools—Althoff, East and West.

The top two singles players and doubles teams from each of the state's 30 district meets will advance to the state final meet Oct. 25-26 at Arlington Heights, Ill. They will be joined on the courts there by qualifiers from the Chicago Public League meet.

Expected to help set the pace for GCHS South are singles players Robin Detering and Melody Roseman. In doubles, the sister team of Delores and Patricia Doherty is rated as having a good chance to make the state finals.

Last year, Patricia Doherty and Mary Ann Yevin teamed to capture district doubles honors and were victorious in first-round competition at the state meet before being eliminated.

GCHS North's hopes rest on the shoulders of Kim Turner, Jackie Sigite, Sue Hommert or Margie Cooke in singles competition. Doubles hopefuls are the teams of Joy Pierson-Tina Taylor, Patti Melzer-Jan Roper, Carolyn Goldschick-Margie Verschul and Mary Bequette-Crystal Andrews.

High rollers

One of the biggest trends in the home furnishing field in the last few years is the amazing increase in the use of color — as color is so decorated more colorfully now than at any time in history.

Actually, in recent years, all the so-called old rules of color combinations have been left behind. Do you remember when it was wrong to mix reds and pinks, or green and blues? Now, of course, these are among the most popular combinations used.

More and more, we see more and more colors in decorating — and more color combinations. This is a major trend and is likely to continue stronger than ever.

Just as all TV and telephones used to be wood color, and now they are seen in all different colors, so a variety of colors is shown in all furnishings in the home, as never before.

If you still prefer the so-called neutral colors such as greys, blacks or whites for your major colors, be sure to use a bright splash of color now and then in a room on some accessories and furniture to keep your room from being drab.

If you would like some assistance in choosing major colors or simply accent pieces, please stop in. There's no obligation, and we'll be glad to help you bring more color and life to your home.

We're the place for your one stop shopping. We'll fill all your furniture needs from lively living rooms to quiet bed rooms with accessories to light up any room.

Elmhurst seeks record 4th straight state header title

Elmhurst (York) begins the journey toward a record-tying fourth straight Illinois High School Association (IHSA) Boys Cross Country title Oct. 22 at the Glen Ellyn (Glenland West) district. Coach Joe Newman's talented Dukes, one of 443 downstate and suburban schools entered in the 29th annual series.

Runners start the chase for individual and team honors at 24 sites at 4 p.m. Oct. 22.

District meets are scheduled on courses to be hosted by: Bloomington (H.S.), Peoria (Spaulding), Moline, Lebanon, Piquette, Centralia, Alton, Quincy (H.S.), Springfield (Lanphier), Hillside (Proviso West), LaGrange (Lynch), Olympia Fields (Rich Central), Mundelein (H.S.), Crystal Lake, Skokie (Niles East), Glen Ellyn (Glenland West), Maple Park (Kaneland), New Lenox (Lipicow-Way), Dixon, Ottawa (Twp.), Rockford (Guilford), Champaign (Centennial), Decatur (H.S.) and Kankakee (Eastridge).

The IHSA meet will include Granite City North and South. The top 10 individuals and members of the first five teams at the district level advance to eight sectional meets which will be held the morning of Saturday, Oct. 26 and hosted by: Benton, Glen Ellyn (Glenland West), Jacksonville, Oak Park-River Forest, Park Ridge (Maine East), Peoria (Roosevelt), Rantoul and Sterling (H.S.).

Each school may enter teams of up to seven runners at the district level but only the first five finishers from the school will be included in scoring for each of the four sectional meets. For all races in the series will be approximately three miles long.

Paris won the first four state harrier meets (1949-52) and no school has challenged that string until this year.

York, which returns four of the seven runners who blazed the field for a near-record victory total of 65 and a victory of 94 points over last year's runner, Brockton, who fell, may find the road to a fourth straight title a rugged one.

"Last year was the great year for the individual performances, but this year is going to be the year of the great team performance," said the predicted Newton, a veteran of 22 years of Illinois prep coaching.

"I think deep in my heart that this year's team could be one of the best in the ever-honored Newton. Our runners worked harder over the summer than any team ever before."

The big question mark, though, in cross country is will you have all your runners ready to go on the same day? This year there are going to be some outstanding team runners, compared to last year's individuals who ran last year.

This is the only year other than in 1971 when we will not have a sophomore in our string line. Whatever that means we won't know until early November."

Dukes returning from last year's title team (and their team performance last season) are senior Bob McCarty (5th), junior Ron Craker (8th), senior Tom Miller (25th) and senior Howard Bass.

"McCarty is a great leader," Newton observed. "Miller is four times stronger than he was last year and could be the real sleeper of the group. Craker was tough last year and can improve and Bass will be better."

But York will be the target for every other team that advances to the State Final Meet, and Newton knows it. "There is going to be some pretty tough scrambling out there once the state series gets under way."

Survivors of sectional competition will advance to the state final meet Nov. 2 at the free-lined, hill-thru-mud-Detweller Park course overlooking the Illinois River adjacent to Ill. Route 29 north of Peoria.

The top 10 individual runners and the top three teams from each of the sectional meets will be joined by two teams and the top 10 individuals from the Chicago Public League meet.

The race will begin at 11 a.m. Peoria High School will host the state final meet. Principal William Robertson will be host manager and will be assisted by Lion administrative assistant Richard Whitaker and Cross Country Coach Robert LaCroix. The 11 a.m. starting time for the race has been established again to allow more contestants and spectators to attend the meet, and yet avoid the added expense of an overnight stay.

Parking for spectators is ample. Last year, more than 5,000 fans watched Dave Walters of New Lenox (Lincoln-Way) roll to the individual title with the second-fastest time ever, 13:57.7. The course record of 13:50.6 was set Nov. 4, 1972, by the sensational Craig Virgin of Lebanon.

Grid Redmen to host Alton Redbirds on Friday

"I witnessed Granite City South's last two games," said Alton grid coach Norman Iman, "and in my opinion, the Warriors could very easily be 5-1 on the season right now."

Iman cited the performances of South's Quarterback Kirk Champion, Flanker Tom Schooley and many other members of the offense and defense as his reason for making the comment.

GCHS South will host the Redbirds at 8 p.m. tomorrow with a chance to tie the Alton in the Southwestern Conference standings. South is 0-4 and Alton 1-3 in league play. Overall, South is winless in six outings and Alton is 1-5.

"I was impressed with Champion and Schooley in the Collinsville contest," said Iman.

Schooley, a 6-3, 179-pound senior letterman, forced South's only touchdown in the game with a 40-yard run. Champion connected on eight of 17 passes for 107 yards, bringing his overall throwing performance thus far to 46 completions for 588 yards.

The Warriors need 136 yards for a victory.

Two receivers are his favorite

targets — End Randy Dick, a rushing in the contest for a total of 488 yards in six games.

Remember his team's 27-6 loss here last year, Iman feels his Redbirds are really clicking this season, having played some close games with top rated schools.

Alton lost its season opener 10-7 to Terre Haute, Ind., and then bowed 7-6 to Quincy High; both are undefeated.

After plastering Cahokia 40-0, the Redbirds lost their next three games — 22-14 to Edwardsville, 14-0 to Collinsville and 20-6 to Belleville East.

"For the first time this season," says Iman, "we are at full strength. We have been hit with injuries and last weekend against East three of our starters were sidelined with the flu virus."

The Alton mentor feels his team sports an efficient offense, well complemented by its defensive line headed by Mark Mormino, a 5-11, 195-pound senior, and Tony Walker, a 6-5, 210-pound senior tackle.

The Redbirds' backfield is guided by Quarterback Jim Roberts, a 5-10, 172-pound senior, who likes to throw.

Two receivers are his favorite

targets — End Randy Dick, a

170-pound senior, and Halfback

Mark Mottaz, a 184-pound

Nearly half of Alton's 75 points scored thus far have come on aerial attacks.

Roberts has hit Dick 11 times for 157 yards and Mottaz has been on the receiving end nine times for 54 yards.

Mottaz is also the Redbirds' leading player, gaining 400 yards on 43 carries. Both players were victims of the flu last week.

Alton's quarterback is potentially dangerous on the keeper. He has earned the team two touchdowns in nine rushes and gained 58 yards in the process.

Granite City South's assets include having at least four players capable of moving the ball on both carries and pass receptions. Other than Schooley, they include junior Halfback Frank Barunich at 5-8; senior Halfback Paul Muehlil at 5-7 and senior End Ray Smith, 5-10.

Although South has recorded only 45 points to opponents' 116, the Warriors have been able to move the ball well and to frequently penetrate enemy territory.

North among schools with eyes on state grid series

With only three or so weeks remaining in the regular season, football-playing schools in the Illinois High School Association (IHSA) are becoming involved in a numbers game. GCHS North is among the underdogs.

While 65 of the berths in the first-ever five-class IHSA football playoff series will be filled by champions of each of the conferences, a total of 15 teams (three in each class) will be selected to compete in the playoffs as "at large" entrants.

In order to qualify for consideration as an "at large" entrant, a school must have a first record winning percentage of 80 or better.

Those eligible for consideration for the "at large" berths are independents such as North; conference co-champions not selected as conference representative; and conference runners-up.

Teams must play a minimum of eight games prior to the weekend of Nov. 1-3 (the ninth weekend of the season). North may need to win either this weekend or the following weekend to have a chance to be selected.

There are 20 combinations of wins, losses and ties which will give a team a winning percentage of 80 or better from an eight-game schedule through a 10-game schedule. In simple arithmetic, the more games a team plays, the more losses it can absorb and still be eligible to qualify. North is 6-0 at this point and is a Class 4A school.

Pairings will be drawn geographically according to the 16 qualifiers in each of the five classes the weekend of Nov. 2. Several dramatic battles that final weekend will determine the conference representative in those leagues.

Among the more notable season finales will be the Peoria (Central) vs. Peoria (Manual) game Nov. 2, which heretofore has been played on Thanksgiving Day.

First-round (preliminary) games in each class will be played Wednesday, Nov. 6, at either 2 or 7 p.m. Champions of eight conferences per class will host the first-round games. Conferences selected to host the opening games were announced earlier.

Champions of the other five conferences within a class, plus the "at large" selections, will be visitors in the first-round games. In most cases, the Nov. 6 game will be played at night if the host school has a lighted football field.

The fields in each class will be paired to eight survivors after the first-round games and they will battle in the quarterfinals at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 9.

Semifinal games will be Saturday, Nov. 16, at 1:30 p.m. Championship games in each of the five classes will be played on the artificial turf of Hancock Stadium on the campus of Illinois State University the weekend of Nov. 22-23.

Four Democrats unopposed for County Board posts in Districts 16, 19, 20, 21

Walter "Dick" Sparks, 62, Chouteau Township supervisor and a former member of the previous County Board of Supervisors, holds the Democratic nomination for the Madison County Board in District 16. He relates, "I have been married to my wife, Laverna, for 41 years. We have two children, Katherine and Jimmie."

"I am past master of Masonic Lodge 99 in Edwardsville, member of the Mississippi Valley Consistory, Mitchell Presbyterian Church, Township Officials of Illinois and other fraternal and civic organizations."

"I have been a member of organized labor all of my working life. I am presently a member of Teamsters Local 971."

"I own and operate D & J Mobile Service, in Granite City. If elected, I intend to withdraw from taking a daily active part in the business to be able to devote full time to my township and county business and activities."

"I believe I am qualified to serve on the County Board for several reasons:

- "(1) Being supervisor seven years and town clerk nine years in Chouteau Township and serving on the County Board five years have given me an opportunity to learn how government operates."
- "In times like now—with so much mistrust in government officials—I believe it is important that we elect people we feel are sincere and honest in all governmental dealings, and not be working for their own political benefit, as some do."
- "My record for the past 16 years shows I have always been working for the best interest of the people, whether it hurt me politically with some or not."
- "(2) I am chairman of the Four Township Sewer Planning Committee. We are doing everything possible to get our project started as soon as possible."
- "When we get funds, we will have all the necessary planning and other work done to proceed with the laying of the lines."
- "(3) I am not one for making promises that I am not sure I can keep, but I will promise I will always do my best. I will listen to everyone's questions and answer them to the best of my knowledge."
- "(4) I believe government is getting too costly for the average people. I promise to work as a conservative on all programs to try to reduce the cost of government, thereby reducing taxes."

He served as a military advisor to the Vietnamese prior to his honorable discharge from the Army in 1970.

A past member of Retail City Masonic Lodge 435, Partney is affiliated with Sheet Metal Workers Local 288.

He comments that, upon election, he will "try to get legislation to change the method of pay from a per diem system to a flat salary of $3,600, which would be the saving of thousands of dollars to the taxpayer."

Besides being available to my constituents at all times, I will establish a place and time once a month for personal accountability sessions.

"I will try to get legislation to change the time of County Board meetings from daytime to the evening so Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public, who pay all the bills, can get in on the action by attending meetings personally instead of by proxy."

Partney continues, "Issues that I consider important include such factors as:

- "A. Excessive cost of operation of the county board, starting with the salaries paid to members in Madison County compared to costs of other counties."
- "B. Inefficient and costly operation of field activities, such as questionable repair to cars and excessive mileage charges by county officials."
- "C. Contract awards to questionable firms."
- "D. A seeming lack of dissent on issues that appear highly questionable."
- "E. A person is needed who is economical, not afraid to speak up for the taxpayer, and willing to do a public service with a public service attitude."
- "F. My decisions will be based on community wishes and not the dictates of practicing politicians and lobbyists."

New guidelines for funding school construction work

The Illinois Capital Development Board (CDB) has adopted new guidelines for funding school construction which will "make the program more equitable, reduce paper work and see that the basic needs of Illinois school children are being met" according to Louis R. Silverman, CDB chairman.

Primary among the changes is a new system for the distribution of construction grants. In the past, grants were made solely on the basis of the "Unhoused Student Index"—a number resulting from a complicated formula involving both present and projected school space and student population.

"The new approach," Silverman said, "will help assure a more equitable distribution of state funds. It is designed to see that the funds reach the school districts with the greatest needs."

"While the problems of overcrowded classrooms, extended day sessions and the need for additional facilities are deep concerns of the CDB, nothing can take precedence over guaranteeing school children a safe and healthy environment."

Under the new guidelines four priority categories have been established:

—first priority—reconstruction of schools damaged or destroyed by fire, flood, or other disasters.

—second priority—replacement of schools not meeting the state's Life-Safety Code. "In other words," said Silverman, "the board, with the help of local school districts, is determined to eliminate fire traps, slum schools and structurally unsound schools and replace them with modern buildings."

—third priority—construction to end current unhoused students needs. "Last year," said Silverman, "quite an emphasis was placed on school construction needs to ease double shifts, extended day, or educationally substandard facilities, known as unhoused student needs."

—fourth priority—projects designed to meet future school needs.

The guidelines established a 5 per cent "set-aside" for the first priority category for emergency construction of schools destroyed by natural calamities. Any unused funds from this will be used for other categories.

In evaluating the awarding of construction grants, Silverman said, CDB also will consider the local effort put forth by a school district, taking into account such things as bonding power, tax rate, assessed valuation and unique proposals.

Among other major changes is a simplification of the process school districts must follow in submitting applications for funding. CDB will now accept a District's A160 District Facility Plan (a document required by the state education office) instead of requiring the district to rewrite and supply the identical information in their grant application.

Also, the district will only have to supply information relative to its priority category and not the all-inclusive report required previously. The requirement for student population and census data has also been reduced.

The application for Chicago schools has been changed to require a narrative, five-year plan of educational and capital improvements programs. A statement outlining how the program was determined and the priorities set must be included.

Evidence of public involvement in the education decision-making process including a public hearing on the district

Convicted on vice charge

Delta Prater, 34, of the 5000 block of Lewis Ave., was found guilty by a federal jury in East St. Louis last week of violating the Mann Act. The act prohibits interstate transportation of persons for "prostitution, debauchery and other immoral purposes."

She allegedly was among five women who performed at a stag party last March at the Washington Park Volunteer Firemen's Recreation Hall. The maximum sentence for the violation is five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

She is the second woman determined guilty of the Mann Act in connection with the party.

Delta Monica, who changed her name to Delta Starr, 30, St. Louis, pleaded guilty last week to the same charge.

She was sentenced to three years probation and was ordered to divest herself of interest in the Flaming Starr, a St. Louis tavern and restaurant, and to cease performing exotic dances in public or private.

Join engineering council

The engineering department at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is a participating member of the newly organized Metropolitan St. Louis Engineering Guidance Council.

According to William E. Hord, chairman of SIUE's engineering department, six educational institutions, ten engineering societies and two industrial and consulting firms are represented in the new council.

One of its purposes, Hord said, is to unite the guidance efforts of junior and four-year colleges offering pre-engineering programs, engineering schools and technical institutes, professional and technical engineering organizations, industrial, construction and consulting firms, and governmental agencies in the metropolitan St. Louis region.

Jack McCarthy, president, said the council's goals also include securing and disseminating reliable information about the engineering profession to students, teachers and counselors; fostering better public relations among engineering professionals, educators and employers; and enhancing the image of the profession with the public.

McCarthy, who is plant superintendent for the Metropolitan St. Louis Sewer District, Bissel Point Treatment Plant, says major emphasis will be on programs and services which are broader than could be provided by the individual engineering organization's activities in guidance counseling.

They found the circuit breaker had been turned off, stopping all electricity to the downstairs. The telephone receiver was off its cradle and the back door was open, officials were told.

Concern over tripling of Lake Michigan flow into Illinois and Mississippi Rivers

By LESTER BELL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau
Congressional proposals to triple the flow of Lake Michigan into the Illinois waterway are being opposed by the Army Corps of Engineers and the State Waterways Department until the potential impact on Downstate and on relations with Canada can be studied.

The three proposals, lumped together as the "Chicago diversion bills," have been sponsored by Great Lakes congressmen, including six Illinoisans, to halt further shoreline erosion caused by prolonged heavy rains. Sponsors say rising lake waters are causing millions of dollars of property damage. They propose relief for their districts through an increase in the outflow authorized by the U.S. Supreme Court. The change would be from 3,200 cubic feet a second to 10,000 CFS on a "flexible," as-required basis. The House Public Works Committee's Water Resources Subcommittee has held mid-October hearings on the bill. Witnesses cautioning

Congress to go slow were Brig. Gen. Walter O. Bachus, chief Army engineer for the North Central Division, and Rufus Z. Smith, deputy assistant secretary of state for Canadian affairs. Congressmen urging speedy enactment were Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., chief sponsor of the three bills, and Rep. Charles H. Mosher, R-Ohio, and

Rep. Samuel H. Young, an Illinois Republican representing the 10th District. Mosher and Young each co-sponsored separate O'Hara bills. Chairman John A. Blatnik, D-Minn., of the Public Works Committee pointed out that the maximum 3,200 CFS outflow was established by the Supreme Court in 1967, "a time of record low levels in the lakes."

The three bills, he added, would increase the flow of water from Lake Michigan via the Chicago Ship Canal to the Illinois River and ultimately the Mississippi River at Granite City. "Now that the lakes are at record level, an increase in the maximum outflow would seem in order," the chairman said. "However, any increase would have an impact not only on the levels of the Illinois and Mississippi Rivers and the human and economic activity dependent on them, but on agreements between Canada and the U.S. as well."

Bachus, from his vantage point as division engineer, analyzed advantages and disadvantages of an increased outflow. He said disadvantages could be overcome by "careful control of diversion" and that the advantages from "even a small reduction in lake levels should not be minimized."

Granite City Press-Record
Bachus put emphasis on environmental considerations by the Environmental Protection Agency and affected states and local interests. He said the Army "does not support enactment of this legislation" until the analyses have been completed and assessed. Smith, speaking for the State Department, advised the subcommittee that "Canada has consistently opposed any unilateral increase in the diversion" because of its possible adverse effect on Canadian navigation and power interests. He said Canada contends that diversion will reduce the volume of water in the Great Lakes basin with feared results. Smith went on to say that Canada has warned that it will consider many of its agreements and understandings broken, including the applicable 1909 treaty, if the United States unilaterally diverts Great Lakes waters. "We have not accepted the legal arguments advanced, but I think it illustrates the importance the Canadian government attaches to the question," Smith said. "While we are not prepared to concede any of these arguments, we cannot dismiss them out of hand."

Smith suggested that it "would be useful" for the Army Engineers or other appropriate agency "to undertake a study of the effects of possible legislation on the Canadian navigation and power interests." If it could be demonstrated that such legislation would not have an adverse impact on Canadian rights and interests, "we would go a long way toward averting a potentially serious problem in our relations with Canada," Smith said. O'Hara, wishing to allay any concern, told the subcommittee he had consulted the U.S. Geological Survey on "precisely what the impact on these (Downstate) waterways would be" if the Chicago outflow had been increased during last year's high water. "Based on this data," he said, "added diversion at Chicago could have been used safely more than 70 per cent of the time to help alleviate high-water conditions on the Great Lakes."

O'Hara said his bills include "two basic conditions" for increased diversion at Chicago: 1. Lake Michigan and Lake Huron must be above their average monthly level. 2. There must be no danger of any flooding in the Chicago River, the Illinois waterway or the Mississippi River. "It simply would not do to transfer the problems which we have either upstream or downstream, or to transfer them to another region of the country," O'Hara said. Young told the subcommittee his 10th Illinois District "is currently suffering from a severe erosion problem which threatens public beaches and private residential property." He singled out as hard-hit communities Evanston, Wilmette, Kenilworth, Winnetka and Glencoe.

"This problem is immediate and extremely serious," Young said in urging the subcommittee to "consider this measure on a priority basis, since the public interest would be well served if the program were initiated at an early date." Mosher emphasized that the bill "does not allow for any constant outflow at Chicago or larger amounts of water than in the past." "It would permit an up-and-down outflow, between 3,000 and 10,000 CFS, depending on a complex set of circumstances. That elastic capability is very much needed."

Two polling places changed
Two changes in precinct polling locations in Granite City for the Nov. 5 election were announced today by County Board Member William Webb of District 16, in whose district the precincts are located. Webb said the polling place of Precinct 30 will be located at the Kelly Hodges residence, 173 Fairview, instead of the Glen Hommer residence at 4108 Melrose as originally announced. The polling place of Precinct 21 will be located at the Suburban Barber Shop, 3200 Terrace Lane, instead of the Victor Koznick residence at 1524 Clark Ave.

COMPRESSOR EXPLODES
Granite City firemen were summoned to the home of Valentine Carrasco, 2559 Cleveland Blvd., at 6:15 p.m. Sunday after an air conditioner compressor exploded. Firemen disconnected the power to the air conditioner. Damage was confined to the air conditioning unit.

Hartigan—will he try for state's top office?

By KEN WATSON
Press-Record

Beneath the Statehouse Dome the feeling is growing that Walker will see a head-on Democratic primary battle matching Gov. Dan Walker and Lt. Gov. Neil Hartigan.

The belief has been strengthened in recent days and at some high levels in Democratic politics that a Walker-Hartigan confrontation is virtually taken for granted. Contributing to this consensus is a prevailing view that Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley will run and be re-elected next year and that Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett will drop ambitions for any higher office and will run again for secretary of state.

Hartigan probably could count on support from both Daley and Howlett in a bid to unseat Walker.

It could well be the most exciting primary battle in the history of Illinois and the outcome at this point is uncertain. Nobody thinks Gov. Walker will be easy to beat. But he could face an imposing alliance.

Daley's political machine—although battered by scandal—remains the most powerful of its kind in the nation.

It could gain renewed strength if the mayor's health holds up and if he wins another smashing triumph in 1975.

Howlett has a popularity unmatched by any Illinois politician in recent times and, as an active campaigner for Hartigan, he possibly could cut into Gov. Walker's recognized popularity.

However, Walker is working hard at nailing down massive primary support.

An obvious question that arises is this: Will the Democrats be engaging in a bitter primary fight set up for the fall 1976 election as a cinch for the expected GOP gubernatorial candidate, current Atty. Gen. William J. Scott?

There are indications that Daley and Howlett have quietly agreed that the risk is worth taking. Both, in blunt terms, are fed up with Gov. Walker, who they feel is determined to convert the Illinois Democratic party into a private machine to further his Presidential ambitions.

The mayor and the secretary would rather see the Democrats lose the governorship than see Walker become a national figure.

But they also feel the party can survive a bruising primary and go on to win in 1976.

Republicans are expected to take a shelling in this November's election and some professional politicians doubt that the party can be rebuilt in time to make a strong rebound two years from now.

There are those, too, who doubt that Scott as a candidate for governor will have the appeal he has had in running for the lesser offices of treasurer and attorney general.

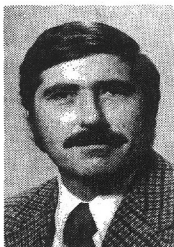

There will be no race for the U. S. Senate in 1976, and the governor must carry the load for the state ticket.

The anti-Walker forces also place much confidence in the personal appeal of Hartigan, who, at only 36, has probably become one of the best known lieutenant governors in modern times, rivaling the popularity of Paul Simon, now a Congressional nominee.

Much of young Hartigan's popularity is attributed to his efforts on behalf of senior citizens.

The older people, who vote more diligently than the young, have made Hartigan something of a personal hero.

A recent poll taken in Northern Illinois gave Hartigan an 80 per cent favorable rating. If it is Hartigan in 1976, it could be one whale of a battle.

Prosecution pledged in vandalism cases

Madison County Sheriff John Maeras announced Tuesday that his department will fully prosecute all persons arrested for minor vandalism offenses.

Maeras said he was alarmed at the number of vandalism cases in the unincorporated areas of the county during the three-day Columbus Day holiday period.

He said 24 cases of vandalism were reported, ranging from damage to a mailbox to the slashing of 15 tires in Rosewood Heights.

Damage is expected to total several hundred dollars from these cases, he said.

Maeras revealed he has ordered increased patrols in areas of high vandalism and has instructed the patrols to enforce curfew laws and stop and request identification from persons in groups acting in a suspicious manner.

"Vandalism of any type will not be tolerated," the sheriff said.

He explained in the past, suspects in vandalism cases generally were released after identification, if they would agree to make restitution to the victim of the vandalism.

"I now have instructed all patrolling deputies to take all suspects into custody when the evidence warrants an arrest and bring them to the sheriff's department for processing, regardless of the amount of such vandalism."

"All suspects will be booked in, whether they are juveniles or adults, and appropriate judicial action will be taken," Maeras stated.

He added, "Since it appears that the suspects in most cases are juveniles, parents are urged to caution their children about participating in acts which would result in the destruction of other people's property and to advise the children of the possible legal consequences of such acts."

Residents of unincorporated areas are urged to report any suspicious activities to the sheriff's department for a check by a patrol unit, Maeras concluded.

LINOLEUM STOLEN
Leslie Gurley, Box 1259 Chouteau Island, reported to Sheriff's deputies early Tuesday that ten rolls of felt worth $90 and linoleum worth $200 were stolen from his home by a burglar who broke a window to gain entry.

A 10-year-old Granite City boy and two Madison boys, ages 12 and 15, were arrested near Pete's Sunoco Service Station, 2050 Edwardsville Road, this week and were identified as having participated in a break-in at the station.

The rear door to a storage shed was forced open and attempts were made to break open the front door of the station, it was reported.

Officers said numerous tennis shoe footprints could be seen on the front door. Nothing was believed taken.

The boys were released to their parents pending action by the juvenile courts.

KROGER FREEZES PRICES

No price increase on over 500 items
thru November 28th

We're as tired of rising food costs as you are. When we pay more, we have to charge more. So, we have bought up enough of over 500 items (many of them reflect manufacturers allowances), that we can promise not to raise these prices before November 28th, 1974.

We will do our best to keep all of our prices down of course, so many other prices will stay down, too, but these you can definitely count on. Look for the blue "KROGER PRICE FREEZE" shelf markers on the items at your near-by Kroger food store and start saving today.

THESE ARE JUST A FEW EXAMPLES OF THE MANY

Jerry McDonald, chairman of ticket sales, said a sellout crowd is expected as only a few tickets remain to be sold.

The Canelot auction is scheduled to begin at Sunset Hills Country Club Saturday, with a social hour at 5:30 p.m. followed by the country club's grand buffet dinner at 6 p.m. The auction will begin at 8 p.m. Tickets are $11 each and may be purchased from members of the Granite City Rotary or Optimist clubs.

About 150 free gifts, including television sets, will be given away during the evening.

A wide variety of items will be on the auction block, including a new Chrysler and an older model car described as "just right" for a teenager; items of jewelry, new clothing, and a multitude of home and garden items.

Items to be sold at the auction are, for the most part, being contributed by local individuals, merchants and industries.

Some of the items are wholly donated and will be sold to the highest bidder for whatever they bring. Other major items are contributed at cost, and will be sold at the highest bid over cost.

Items ranging upward in price from just a few dollars.

Venice studies park grants

Venice Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold, and his administration assistant Tom Fields, addressed a meeting of the Venice Park Board during the weekend, informing the board that "federal funds are available to expand the parks programs in Venice."

Fields explained that the Madison County Manpower Office at Edwardsville has available to cities federal grants to be used for the hiring of Vietnam veterans, who are unemployed, to public service positions.

The board suggested that this possibly could aid the senior citizens of Venice by hiring a program planner to organize a senior citizen recreational program.

The feasibility of creating new programs is being taken under advisement by the board which will make recommendations at its next regular meeting Nov. 6.

North gym problems solved

Construction problems at Granite City High School North gymnasium which resulted in roof leaks, insulation that continued to scorch and some insulation joints that broke loose, apparently have been corrected, according to a report by Tully A. The report said the contractor has lowered the heaters to correct the scorching of insulation and repairs to the roof have prevented any leaks since the hard rain on Sept. 28.

South High School during the meeting.

Attends Chicago church meeting

The Rev. Don F. Pierson, pastor of the Nameoki Presbyterian Church of Granite City, was one of 300 church and lay leaders who attended a week-long conference on church management in Chicago last week.

The five-day program, sponsored by Campus Crusade for Christ, was designed to provide practical training in basic management principles for pastors as well as church staff and lay leaders.

"My ministry cannot help but be more effective as a result of this conference," Rev. Pierson said. "It was by far the most comprehensive and helpful management presentations I have ever seen."

According to Rev. Pierson, the participants were shown through seminars, workshops, and small discussion groups, how to set goals, develop plans, organize programs, delegate responsibility and motivate people.

The objective, according to Rev. Pierson, was to provide management training in a context that is thoroughly Christian, helping participants to learn the best use of their time, talents and resources for the greatest possible effectiveness in their personal ministry and the ministry of the local congregation.

Faculty members for the conference included Dr. Bill Bright, founder and president of Campus Crusade for Christ International; Dr. Henry Brandt, well-known Christian psychologist, author and lecturer; and Steve Douglas and Bruce Cook, graduates of the Harvard Business School and Management Consultants before going on the staff of Campus Crusade for Christ.

Pastors who attended earlier Church Management Conferences were also there to share the changes they have seen as a result of their training.

Sweet Adelines show Nov. 2

The Collinsville Chapter of the Sweet Adelines plans its annual show Nov. 2 at Webster Junior High School, Collinsville. The show title is "Happiness is... Memories." The songs selected to be sung barbershop style have been selected for audiences of a wife and group but should have a particular appeal to children.

The show will feature two quartets. One of the quartets, The Tiffanys, from the Chicago area, were the 1973 Queens of Harmony. The Queens of Harmony are the top quartets in the international organization and are selected through competition. The quartet singers are Jane Walker, tenor, Joan Melling, lead, Dale Syverson, baritone, and Louise Nandick, bass.

The second featured quartet is the Tetrachords from the Kirkwood, Mo. chapter. The Tetrachords were winners of the Region 3 contest in Chicago last March. The Tetrachords are Terri Studebaker, tenor, Patti Frei, lead, Sandi Spiller, baritone, Nancee Reinhold, bass.

The Sweet Adelines, Inc., is an international organization of nearly 600 choruses with 24,000 members through the United States, Canada, and the Panama Canal Zone. The Collinsville Chapter has approximately 50 members from about ten cities in the metro-east area.

Tickets for the annual show are available from any chapter member or at the door the night of the show. Individuals interested in securing tickets in advance may call Joyce Walker, ticket chairman, 876-3614. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Oliver Anderson Hospital Building Fund and other charities.

Alaskan minister to speak

Don Nelson will be the featured speaker at the Alton Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International meeting Saturday at The Steelworkers Able Hall, 2921 Broadway, Alton.

Nelson and his wife, Gen, have spent the past 16 years in Alaska, ministering to the Indians and Eskimos. He has flown as bush pilot to many of the remote villages, conducting religious services, hauling supplies, operating bible schools and making emergency flight missions.

Their "North Pole" radio station, KJNP, in North Pole, Alaska, about 12 miles from Fairbanks, is a 24-hour gospel station, now operating on 50,000 watts. Their location puts them in a position to not only reach the frozen wilderness of northern Alaska, which is virtually inaccessible much of the time, but literally they are on top of the globe and have evidence of reaching Finland, Sweden, the Northwest Territory and Yukon Territory of Canada, and also into Russia.

Their ministry is non-denominational and the public is invited to hear Nelson's address.

AMY LEANN HESTER MARKS 6th BIRTHDAY

The celebration was continued Sunday afternoon with a family gathering at the Hester home.

A "Scooby Doo" theme was used in the completion of party decorations.

Following the opening of many gifts, Mrs. Hester served birthday cake and cream to the honoree and her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Bridges, maternal grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carbaugh, Miss Beth Carbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Cobb, Mrs. Sandy Ousley and daughter, Sherri, and Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Ricks.

More satisfaction from family life is goal of Family Service Agency

The Family Service Agency of Southern Illinois, 30 Loisel Village Shopping Center, East St. Louis, whose executive director is Harold L. Bruns, is one of 18 agencies aided by the Tri-Cities Area United Way.

The annual United Way pledge campaign is currently in progress.

The Family Service Agency is a not-for-profit, non-sectarian, marriage, family and individual counseling agency serving this region.

"Our primary source of support is from several United Funds, in addition to fees charged to clients," Bruns reports.

"We are accredited by the Family Service Association of America, which is a national standard setting and accrediting body."

"The professional staff must have a master's degree in social work or related field, or be serving an internship toward such a degree."

"We serve as a training center for students in social work from St. Louis University and Washington University in St. Louis."

"About fifty per cent of our requests for service are from people experiencing marital conflict."

"The second largest category of service is for parents who are having some kind of problem with their children."

"Another large category of service is to individuals who are having various kinds of personal psychological problems, or problems in relationships with other people, at work, at school, with friends, etc."

"Within these problem areas people are counseled individually, jointly, as a family, or on a group basis, as the need dictates."

"Methods of counseling used include traditional psychoanalytically-oriented casework and psychotherapy, Gestalt therapy, Transactional Analysis, and combinations of these and other methods."

"We conduct weekly in-service training programs designed to continually update professional skills of the staff, and a Transactional Analysis seminar which is open to other professionals and students in the community," Bruns relates.

"The basic aim of family service agencies is to strengthen families and the individuals who live within the families."

"To reach this goal, in addition to our regular counseling services, our agency provides various kinds of family life education programs, in which our staff meets with community groups at schools, churches, etc., to help people become aware of ways to get more satisfaction out of family living."

"Also, our staff members are available to speak to clubs, classes or other groups about marriage and family life."

National Science grant to SIUE

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been awarded a $36,200 grant by the National Science Foundation to continue research on environmental quality in the St. Louis airshed for the next two years. This is the third time the university has received the grant.

Robert E. Kohn, associate professor of economics, will continue to head the research. Kohn has developed an economic model for air pollution control in the airshed. The model provides a basis for evaluating control strategies and air quality goals, for examining inter-dependencies in the control of water, land and airborne pollutants, for estimating the impact of abatement expenditures on the regional economy and for relating pollution control to location theory.

EUGENE BROCK RITES
Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Equality, Ill. for Eugene S. Brock, 54, who died Sunday at Pearce Hospital, Eldorado, Ill. He was a retired employee of the former Union Star Refining Co. of Granite City.

"Looking toward the future, our agency is working on the establishment of a Big Brother program, in which fatherless boys can be put in touch with responsible men who are willing to give of their time and companionship in order that the boys can better learn how to become responsible men themselves."

"Also on the drawing board are plans to set up a Rape Crisis Center, to provide counseling and emotional support for women faced with this difficult problem as well as other problems of sexual abuse or molestation."

"Along with direct service to the victims, there will be educational programs for police and hospital personnel who may be in contact with the problem."

Additives a mixed blessing

When a harried housewife or her equally harried husband decides in the average one-fifth of a second to choose a convenience food from the supermarket shelves, they may wheel out a shopping cart loaded with more additives than they bargained for.

To take just one fairly typical example, the label on a certain brand of instant potatoes reveals to the few who bother to read it that the package also contains some nine or more chemical additives plus artificial flavoring which is not identified.

For $1.15 you can take this product home and add enough water, butter, milk and salt to produce six pounds of mashed potatoes. In at least one supermarket, for only 14 cents more you could have purchased a 10-pound bag of whole potatoes — without the questionable added chemicals.

Experts estimate that over three thousand different additives are used in food today. According to the White House Conference on Food, Nutrition, and Health, "We have no assessment of the 'existing chemical burden' which we carry, nor would we know for sure what it meant if we did."

Some additives have only been tested for safety singly on animals over a relatively short time period. The history of coal tar dyes used as food coloring illustrates the possible problems of short-term evaluation. According to a physician's symposium addendum read into the Congressional Record, toxic or cancer-causing effects frequently become evident with a dye in long-term use, "... which leads to either exclusion or provisional listing. Again, on the basis of short-term evaluation a new product is substituted." Provisional listing means that the additive can still be used, but it is subject to recall at any time.

As one researcher pointed out in Senate testimony, "It would seem prudent, because we are ignorant of the combined effects of many of these compounds when consumed over a lifetime, to ensure that only those chemical additives be used that are necessary to guarantee the safety of food that is bought and eaten."

Yet a high percentage of food additives are artificial flavors and colors used to enhance appearance and taste appeal. They contribute to the market value of the item, not its nutritional worth.

Experts recognize that food additives have the potential to interact with drugs and other chemicals which enter our system. Investigators have also become concerned about the possible adverse effects additives ingested during pregnancy might have on the developing fetus.

Recent findings indicate that an additive-laden menu may play a significant part in the behavioral and learning difficulties of some hyperactive children. San Francisco allergist Ben F. Feingold, M.D., chief emeritus, Department of Allergy, Kaiser Foundation Hospital and Permanente Medical Group, achieved notable improvement in symptoms within hours of youngsters by placing them on a special diet which excluded aspirin-related substances and artificial colorings and flavorings. Violating the diet could trigger a return of symptoms within hours.

Other possible sensitivity reactions to artificial colors and flavors, not necessarily limited to children, include respiratory, skin, gastrointestinal and neurological effects.

What is a concerned consumer to do? First and foremost, don't buy it for your table till you've read the label, right down to the small print. Avoid relying heavily on products with chemicals added. By investing just a little more time, you can replace many convenience items with fresh foods which are better buys in terms of nutrients per penny.

NEWS ANALYSIS

Walker sets up for victory image

SPRINGFIELD — If Democrats win control of both houses of the General Assembly as expected, who do you think will take credit for the success of the Democratic Party?

Gov. Daniel Walker, of course.

He has set the stage beautifully by announcing that his top aide, Vic de Grazia, is taking a leave of absence in order to campaign for Democratic legislative candidates.

Even if de Grazia's campaigning is minimal, Walker will still be able to take credit for the victories, despite the fact Democrats were expected to win control before the announcement. Republicans now hold a one-vote margin in each house.

Although Democrats in the legislature have helped the Republicans thwart Walker at every turn, they may be less likely to do that if they are in control.

Instead, they may concentrate on substantive programs while they have the chance. Only twice this century — and not since 1927 — have Democrats controlled the legislature and the governor's office at the same time!

But do legislative candidates want help from de Grazia? Since some Democrats were late that Walker took credit for the victories after the March primary, we asked a few if they welcome de Grazia's help now.

Joe Pisciotte hesitated when asked about de Grazia, and then said: "Yes, I welcome his help, by all means. Do you expect me to say no?"

"It's no secret I need help financially," said Pisciotte, who is challenging Republican Sen. Stanley Weaver of Urbana. "Historically, it's a Republican seat... I want to work with the governor. We don't agree on everything, but he's a Democrat and I'm a Democrat."

State Sen. Ken Burzee of Carbondale didn't know how de Grazia could help him in his bid for reelection.

The freshman senator, who is being challenged by Rep. Norbert (Doc) Springer of Chester, said he didn't expect much financial help, and he is using nearly the same campaign staff that helped defeat him with two years ago. He does plan to ask Walker — and other Democratic officials — to come to the district to campaign.

Sen. Vivian Hickey of Rockford said she does not really have an idea of what de Grazia's assistance will consist of. She's an appointive member who is being challenged by Roland (Mac) McFarland.

Doug Kane of Springfield, a former aide to Walker, was likewise uncertain as to what help to expect from de Grazia. But he added: "I welcome anybody's assistance."

Kane's district is one of seven House districts which are targeted by de Grazia as "iron-line" districts where Democrats can win a seat now controlled by Republicans.

Kane and Rep. Jim Lindri-gan are hoping to defeat either Rep. Dave Jones or Justin Taft, a last-minute entry to replace incumbent Republican Joe Gibbs.

In the 36th District, Democrats are hopeful Clarence Derringer of Rock Island can win the seat held by retiring Republican Pete Pappas. The same holds true in Peoria with Joseph Mudd seeking the seat being vacated by Robert Day.

Richard Luft of Pekin thinks he can win the seat held for 12 terms by Republican Carl Soderstrom, who unsuccessfully sought his party's nomination for Congress.

The retirement of Charles Clabaugh could mean that Champaign seat could go to Helen Satterthwaite, a Democrat.

In southern Illinois, Bruce Richmond of Murphysboro and Vincent Birchler of Chester hope to defeat one of the Republicans, Gale Williams of Murphysboro or Ralph Dunn of Du Quoin.

And in Rockford, Guy Stubblefield is challenging Pat North and Timothy Simons.

In addition to Pisciotte, these Democratic Senate challengers are rated as having a good chance of unseating incumbent Republicans: Vince Demuzio of Carlinville (Junie Bartalis); Robert Egan of Chicago (Robert Scholl); Ray (Dutch) Scott of DeKalb (David Shapiro).

Dan Hardy of Peoria also hopes to defeat Prescott Bloom who upset veteran Harrison Sours in the GOP primary.

ATTEND STATE MOOSE CONVENTION IN PEORIA

Special care for suede garments

Suede garments and suede trim on sweaters, suits and dresses need special care to remain attractive.

Suede is a finish given to leather by abrasion. The process makes the leather soft and pliable and gives it a velvety surface called a nap.

Garment labels often give cleaning instructions, and they may state that the suede is guaranteed, provided it is cleaned by a certain process. Therefore, be sure to check labels and hang tags.

Suede usually needs to be cleaned by specialists in leather care since it may also need to be reconditioned and re-dyed after cleaning. Although such care is expensive, home-cleaning, care may prove more expensive.

Some cleaning fluids may remove the dye, and the added expense of correcting the damage may amount to more than the professional cleaning would have cost.

Here are several home-care suggestions for suede:

—For general soil removal, brush suede garments with a soft bristle brush or a damp rubber sponge, using a circular motion to collect surface dirt and oil. An art gum will also remove some surface dirt.

—Hang suede garments on padded hangers in a cool closet. Do not cover suede with a plastic bag because heat and lack of circulation will dry out the leather.

—Suede garments can be pressed at home with a warm, dry iron. Press items wrong side out, using brown wrapping paper between the iron and the leather. Never use steam.

—Don't try to wash suede with water. And should you get caught in the rain in your suede coat, let it dry naturally at room temperature. Use a dry cellulose sponge to help restore the nap when the garment is dry.

If you decide to chance home cleaning, be sure the cleaning fluid contains an absorbent. Even then, unless you are skilled at the task, the solvent-absorbent mixtures may leave a ring or remove the color.

Evelyn Bowles unopposed for Madison County clerk

Miss Evelyn M. Bowles, 52, Edwardsville Democratic nominee for Madison County clerk, has 22 years of experience as the chief deputy of retiring Clerk Eulalia Hotz. She is unopposed Nov. 5.

A native of Worden, she attended Worden and Livingston schools, Illinois State University, Greenville College and Southern Illinois University.

A member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Edwardsville, she owned a photography studio for five years and was a school teacher six years before joining the staff of the county clerk.

Miss Bowles served two and a half years in the Coast Guard Women's Reserve (Spars) Intelligence Division.

She has served for 20 years as an officer of Local 709, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

A precinct committeewoman for the past 14 years, she was county chairlady of the Madison County Democratic Women's Organization from 1970 to 1972. Her affiliations include the Daughters of Isabella, American Legion Auxiliary, Audubon Society and Edwardsville Business and Professional Women's Club.

She comments, "I feel my 22 years as chief deputy for Eulalia Hotz qualify me to carry out the functions of the office."

"I have worked in all areas of responsibility in the office, with particular emphasis on election matters, voter registration and delinquent taxes."

"As chief deputy, I have the same responsibilities as the county clerk and must carry on the duties and supervise the personnel in her absence."

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Oct. 17, 1974 Page 30

Miss Bowles adds, "The county clerk's office has been intimately involved in the conversion of the tax structure to data processing."

It is his purpose and intention to cooperate, in every conceivable manner, to assure speedier tax rate computations, billing and distribution which would assist taxing districts in avoiding the issuance of tax anticipation warrants.

"Interest money saved could be utilized in other areas by the districts. After the Cole-Layer-Trumble contract expires, and our data processing department takes over the tax work, the county clerk's office will be responsible for maintenance and updating of the property record files."

"I will utilize employees presently on the staff of the county clerk's office to do the data recording."

These people can then be used in other areas of the office when they are not working on the tax files. This will result in a saving for taxpayers.

This has been the practice of Miss Hotz and I will continue this same economical approach."

"In addition, it is my purpose to convert the Permanent Voters' Registration files to computer. This will allow greater flexibility for the printing of lists and voters' identification cards."

As of the first of April 1974, the county clerk again has permanent deputy registrars in the county. These are selected from lists provided by the county chairmen of the two parties, as prescribed by the Illinois Election Code.

"If this proves to be a viable vehicle for registration, I will consider an expansion of the program. But any and all changes will be in complete compliance with the state laws."

"I will continue the special centers, the use of the mobile registration van, and special deputies in the high schools and universities."

Sheriff, volunteers form Halloween watch

"Operation Trick or Treat" will be held Halloween night, Thursday, Oct. 31, to promote safety among the small children and to deter vandalism and illegal activities.

According to Madison County Sheriff John Maeras, occur annually on Halloween night. Volunteer citizens will act as informal eyes and ears of the Sheriff's Department throughout the county that night. They will not arrest or function as actual law enforcement units, but will report unusual activity to a special "Operation Trick or Treat" command posts at the Sheriff's department and other locations throughout the county. The groups assisting in this service project will have special identification.

Deputy sheriffs who normally are off that night have volunteered their services without pay to work with this project. According to a sheriff's spokesman, the Granite City Civil Defense Alert Team 368 will patrol the Mitchell area.

Any individual or citizens' group wishing to volunteer to help with "Operation Trick or Treat" may contact the department on a toll-free number 345-6885.

Documenting history of Pontoon Beach

Pontoon Beach Trustee Marvin Ribbing is collecting historical data and photographs on the history of that village which are to be used in conjunction with the nation's bi-centennial observance in 1976.

Ribbing said he is interested in all information on the history of the Pontoon Beach area and specifically in how the village got its name.

Photographs of early residents, early road, Pontoon bridges across Long Lake and other items would be of interest. Items may be returned upon request.

All items may be left at the Pontoon Beach Village Hall or messages for Ribbing may be left with the village police department, he said.

Medicare for kidney ailments

Medicare is now paying $3 million a week for health care expenses of over 15,000 people who have chronic kidney disease, according to Bill Kerr, social security district manager in East St. Louis.

Medicare health insurance became available July 1, 1973, to workers insured under social security, or their dependents, who have chronic kidney disease.

Medicare coverage begins the fourth month after renal dialysis (artificial kidney treatment) starts. "The coverage lasts for 12 months after dialysis ends or the patient has a successful kidney transplant," Kerr said.

Medicare also helps pay for a wide variety of the health care expenses of people 65 and over and disabled people of any age who have been entitled to social security disability payments for 24 consecutive months or more.

The program is administered by the Social Security Administration, an agency of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

P is for passbook
The simplest kind of savings account. It's called "passbook" because that's what you get. A pocket-sized book that holds a complete record of your deposits, withdrawals and balance—as simple as the record you keep in your checkbook.

A is for anytime
You can deposit anytime, withdraw anytime. Other savings plans require you to wait a certain period or until a certain date before withdrawing. But, with a passbook, your money's yours whenever you need it.

S is for safe
Completely safe. At Illini Federal, your account is insured up to $20,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, a governmental agency.

S is for sun
Every time it goes up and comes down your savings increase. Because Illini compounds your interest daily. That means higher annual earnings. And, if you withdraw before the end of a quarter, you still earn interest for every single day the money was on deposit.

B is for best rates anywhere
We pay the highest interest allowed by law on passbook accounts. The current rate is 5 1/4% annually. If it changes, you'll automatically start earning the new rate.

O is for only
It only takes a few minutes to open a passbook account. Do it now. Then add to it little by little or lot by lot.

O is for offices
Illini has four. You can transact your business at any one of them, regardless of where you opened your account. Or save by mail with our "trip-saver" envelopes—the postage is paid both ways.

K is for keep saving
You'll be surprised how fast your savings grow into beautiful things, even if you start with peanuts.

Price signs campaign code

Congressman Melvin Price (D-23rd Ill.) has signed the Code of Fair Campaign Practices, a set of principles which regulate a candidate's campaign for public office. Signing the code is voluntary on the part of the candidate.

The code contains pledges which condemn the use of personal funds for campaign tactics on an opposing candidate, any appeal to prejudice, or any dishonest or unethical practice which tends to corrupt or undermine our American system of free elections.

Other pledges support "full and equal participation in the electoral process" and campaign conduct "in the best American tradition."

A candidate signing the code also promises to "immediately and publicly repudiate support deriving from any individual or group which resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of my opponent, to methods and tactics which I condemn."

Rep. Price said he has always signed the code and believes that every candidate should do so.

"If every campaign was run in accordance with the code's principles, we could always be sure that our election results reflected the true will of the people," he said. "It's a real lesson in Watergate, it's that we needed more candidates adhering to the kind of rules spelled out in the code."

Musso, Emde county treasurer candidates

DONALD W. EMDE

The 1974 Madison County Republican candidate for the office of county treasurer is Donald W. "Don" Emde.

Emde, 34, Bethalto, is married to the former Emma L. Moore and he has a stepdaughter, Tricia Lynn, three years old.

Emde has a bachelor of science degree in business administration from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and studied computer programming for a year at the Lewis and Clark College, Godfrey.

Employed by the Olin Corp., East Alton, as contract administrator from 1969 to the present, he has the responsibility to assure that Olin conforms to terms and conditions of contracts entered with the Department of Defense, General Services Administration, Postal Service, Coast Guard and city and state law enforcement agencies.

Total annual business handled is approximately $2 million.

Emde worked for the Department of Defense from 1964 to 1969 at procurement and administration offices in Chicago and St. Louis as procurement specialist and contract specialist.

In the U. S. Army from April 1964 to 1966, he served nine months in Quinhon, Vietnam, as a payroll specialist.

He is a member of the National Contract Management Association and Bethalto Jaycees. He is the 1973-74 Jaycee president.

He has a business interest in a duplex rental property in Bethalto. He is an SIUE Business Alumni Association charter member.

Emde comments that "my primary concern as a candidate for county treasurer is to return some form of checks and balances to our county government."

"For the past thirty-odd years, the Democratic party has dominated county government."

"The County Board consists of 29 members, of whom 25 are Democrats."

"To whom do the officeholders have to answer? True, you may say the voter; however, the voter doesn't necessarily find out what is happening unless some newspaper reporter happens to detect some inequity in his investigations."

"The only sure way of maintaining an equitable balance within political offices is to change the officeholder periodically."

"Limiting the number of years in any one office would virtually eliminate political strongholds which can breed corruption. There is always a need for a balance of power to insure that the people receive a fair shake in their government."

"My objectives as treasurer would be to increase the efficiency of the office, to seek the greatest return on investment of idle funds, to assure prompt disbursement of funds to the agencies within the county which are dependent upon these funds, and to keep the public informed of what is happening within the treasurer's office."

GEORGE MUSSO

George F. Musso, 63, of Edwardsville, is seeking reelection as treasurer of Madison County. He won the Democratic primary election nomination in March.

Elected to his present four-year term as treasurer in 1970, he at that time was completing his second term as sheriff of Madison County, having first held the post from 1958 through 1962.

He was elected as Madison County treasurer in 1962, serving in that position until 1966.

For the first time in Illinois, treasurers and sheriffs can now seek successive terms.

Musso is married and has three married daughters. He and Mrs. Musso have lived in Edwardsville 35 years.

Musso was born in Collinsville, where he attended public schools. He obtained a bachelor degree at Millikin University.

Prior to his election as sheriff in 1958, he operated a restaurant and served as a deputy sheriff of Madison County and a parole officer for the state of Illinois.

He has been a member of the Moose and Elks lodges, the Lions Club, Edwardsville Gun Club, Madison County Police Association and National Sheriffs Association.

Musso has made extensive investments of reserve funds to provide interest earnings for the county treasury.

He received re-election endorsement from the Madison County Democratic Central Committee. Citing his 29 years of governmental experience, he says the endorsement was made on merit.

Over $2 million has been earned since he initiated a broad investment policy, Musso estimates, adding that over 90 per cent of county funds are kept invested.

A former star professional football player with the Chicago Bears, Musso opposes direct bidding in the belief that major Chicago and St. Louis banks might obtain the funds.

He encourages high interest returns while at the same time endeavoring to place funds in the banks and savings and loan associations that pay taxes in Madison County.

Musso adds, "These investments of county government funds help the financial institutions have something to loan people in this county."

Superintendent John Palchiff said, "Parents are urged to come, visit the schools, talk with the teachers and administrators as well as observe some of the students work. The closer the communication between the schools, parents and the community, the better the quality of education."

Open house at Madison schools

Madison Community Unit District 12 will observe American Education Week with open house in all six buildings on Thursday, Oct. 24.

Open house will be held at the high school and the Harris and Louis Baer elementary schools from 2:15 to 4:15 p.m. and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.; at the junior high school from 3:15 to 4:45 p.m. and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., and at Blair and Dunbar schools from 2:15 to 6:15 p.m.

Superintendent John Palchiff said, "Parents are urged to come, visit the schools, talk with the teachers and administrators as well as observe some of the students work. The closer the communication between the schools, parents and the community, the better the quality of education."

Halloween horrors can be real

By JOAN MURARO
Press-Record
Springfield Bureau

The Halloween horrors are all supposed to be make-believe. Witches who burn, and princesses who fall asleep after eating the poisoned apple, are supposed to only happen in fairy tales.

But when young goblins are concerned chiefly with goblinin', and pre-school pirates are interested mostly in stealing ahead of the group to get to the goodies first, the ghoulish fun can turn painfully grim.

The Illinois Department of Public Health's division of disease control has temporarily shifted its sights a little, from sickness to safety, and issued a series of suggestions on how to keep Halloween happy.

Since "dressing up" and jack o'lanterns are the basic raw ingredients of any serious

Halloween activity, they post the biggest threat to little trick-or-treaters.

Parents should look for "flameproof" labels on costumes, masks, wigs or beards they purchase.

Mothers who lovingly sew the costumes at home should use only flame-resistant fabrics and, in either case, costumes should not be made of flimsy materials or with billowing skirts or big baggy sleeves—all the better to brush against a lighted candle, my dear.

All costumes should be of light or bright colors where possible, so motorists can see them easily.

If a white-clad witch doesn't seem too suitable, a black-clad witch can and should carry a flashlight and have strips of reflective tape applied to the costume.

Whatever the color or style, the costume should be short enough that the wearer won't trip over it. "Bugs Bunny" could lose his front teeth.

Masks, kerchiefs, veils and the like are meant to conceal the wearer, not kill him; they should be chosen so they can be seen through, and not restrict breathing.

No plastic bag, or part of one, should be placed on a child's head or face.

Cosmetics or charcoal applied directly to the skin are not only more original, but usually tickle the wearer's fancy more, and are safer.

Pumpkins are as traditional as soaped windows and thrown corn on Halloween. But those lighted with candles should be placed safely away from doors or entrances where a skirt or a sleeve or veil might brush disastrously against them.

Indoors, they should be set far from curtains or other furnishings which could burn.

Suggestions to carry lighted candles, even inside a hollow pumpkin, should be promptly snuffed—no open flames being carried are safe in children's hands.

Young children should always be accompanied by a responsible older person who keeps them constantly in sight.

Trick or treaters should be restrained from running across lawns or yards; lawn ornaments and clothes lines can be invisible in the dark, and "Superman" could suffer the indignity of a sprained ankle, a broken arm, or worse.

Everyday safety rules should be stressed, such as not running out from between parked cars; there is no magic to protect the little ghost against becoming one if he darts into the path of a moving vehicle. The "loot" from goodie bags should be kept in them until it arrives home and can be examined by an adult—a few real-life ghouls have been reported to put pins, drugs and other items in the treacherous treats they distribute.

Even those whose trick or treat years are far behind them should be extra careful on Halloween if they are driving. Youngsters busy with fun aren't always careful.

The motorist may have to be doubly cautious, for himself and for them, or a moment's inattention could let Halloween 1974 haunt a driver the rest of his life.

BURNING ISSUE What to do with a pile of dead leaves

SPRINGFIELD — The issue of leaf burning has once more reared its smoky head in Illinois.

At a meeting of the Illinois Pollution Control Board in Chicago, the board found that while leaf burning is known to be dangerous and harmful to asthmatics, and while burning combinations of grasses, weeds, leaves and landscape wastes is known to produce carcinogens, the language of existing state laws on leaf burning prohibits the board from adopting new controls recommended by the Environmental Protection Agency.

However, by a unanimous vote, the five-member board agreed to hold open the record on the highly emotional question for six months, during which time any individual or agency may submit additional evidence which would possibly support the board's taking new, stringent action against the open burning of leaves.

The "to burn or not to burn" question first arose in Illinois in September of 1971, when a statewide ban on the burning of landscape wastes was adopted.

If the leaves weren't smoldering, tempers were, and in July, 1972, the state's environmental protection agency filed amendments with the PCB, which would relax the restrictions in some areas.

In November, 1972, the PCB did adopt the relaxed regulations which allowed burning in communities with a population of less than 2,500 outside metropolitan areas, and in rural areas.

In March of 1973, new amendments were filed by the EPA, but after a few public hearings, the proposals were tabled when it became obvious that those who missed the smell of autumn bonfires, and objected to alternate (and often inefficient) methods of disposing of the leaves, had found legislative champions.

In August of 1973, the state General Assembly did in fact adopt a law which basically forbids any ban on leaf burning, though there are some exceptions permitted. Roy Harsch, administrative assistant to PCB chairman Jacob Dumelle, said evidence was heard by the board that economic impact statements showed that the average cost per person, when leaf burning was banned and other collection arrangements had to be made, was 53 cents. Off-setting even that limited amount, he said, was the savings communities reported in reduced numbers of fire alarms, and savings on reduced numbers of street repairs. Peoria, he said, actually saved money through reduced fire calls when the leaf burning ban was in effect.

Summarizing its findings at the conclusion of the meeting, the board adopted a report written by Donald Hens, which said it was the "finding of the board that the record developed in this proceeding lacks the certain medical and biological evidence necessary for adopting the agency (EPA) proposed leaf burning ban."

The board unanimously supported the summary which noted that "we do not by this decision condone the open burning of leaves" and said the board wished to "give no such stamp of approval to open burning."

The law requires "medical biological evidence that such burning will contaminate a specific geographic area in sufficient quantities, characteristics and duration to be injurious to humans, plant and animal life or health," as accepted by the majority of the scientific community. Evidence before the PCB, the board held, showing that burning produces benzo-pyrene, a known carcinogen from leaves "should raise doubts even among the most adamant proponents of leaf burning."

The board concluded by stating they were "encouraged by local ordinances which spare more than half the populace from the effects of leaf burning and recommended adoption of such regulations by more municipalities."

Auto license system simplified

Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state, has announced two new forms will replace 24 different forms now being used to apply for vehicle license plates and certificates of title.

For the first time, a car or truck buyer will be able to apply for his title certificate and his plates on a single form.

There is now a title application form and 23 registration applications for different classes of vehicles—cars, trucks, motorcycles, trailers, semi-trailers, recreational vehicles, etc.

Under the new system there will be one form for all vehicles licensed on a calendar year basis (mostly cars) and another for those licensed on a state fiscal year basis, July 1 to June 30 (mostly trucks and trailers).

The change is part of a new "Regititle" program Howlett is organizing to speed up service and save taxpayers' money.

A new division will handle all the functions formerly handled by the Registration and Title divisions of the Department of Motor Vehicles in the secretary's office.

About six million license plate registrations and three million new titles a year are processed by the office.

The number of cars and trucks licensed in Illinois has been growing about four percent annually.

Up to now, license plates and titles have been handled separately by about 100 employees in the Titles Division and 380 in Registration.

Under the Regititle system, an application for title and plates for the same car will be handled by the same employees.

Processing is being reorganized under a "team table" concept.

Instead of moving from floor to floor, or section to section, for auditing, validating, numbering and other processing steps, the applications and checks in payment will move from the mail room to a table where all processes will be handled by a team of skilled employees working elbow to elbow.

Secretary Howlett said the new system will mean that plates and titles will be received much sooner by the car owner.

The cost of printing the application forms will be only one of several dramatic savings.

The secretary's office has been writing about 20,000 letters a month to applicants to correct details in their original applications. The letters cost the taxpayers about $3 apiece in employees' time, postage, stationery, envelopes, etc.

Under the new system, shifts of telephone workers will call the applicants to obtain the missing information and make corrections then and there.

Pilot teams already doing this have solved the problems for an average of 60 cents apiece.

"Most of the problems that come up with incomplete applications can be solved by telephone without an expensive correspondence," said Howlett.

"As we refine our systems we will lower sharply the cost of problem solving."

their time in the long run." The physical layout of registration and title processing in the Centennial building, Springfield, is being reorganized for better efficiency, and convenience of citizens who come in with inquiries.

Under the old system, an inquiring citizen could be directed to any of the six floors in the building, and to different sections of different floors.

Under Regititle, a public service center on the main floor will be able to handle most of the walk-in traffic.

If more than routine service is needed, the inquiring citizen will be sent to a more sophisticated service center on the fourth floor—but no further.

Either the main floor center or the fourth floor center must find the answer.

The fifth floor of the building will house the team table processing function. The sixth will house a files and information retrieval center. Both floors will be restricted to the secretary's personnel only.

The secretary's office now has 11 teams of 10 workers each using the team table processing system.

The new consolidated forms will not be ready until Spring, 1975, but a prototype is now in use for training purposes.

Training programs have now begun, not only for team table employees, but also for 47 dealer service representatives.

Workshops with auto dealers will be scheduled throughout Illinois, in which the secretary's service representatives will explain the new forms to dealers and their employees.

When the finalized forms are in the field, the secretary intends to issue a computer-printed title. Besides speeding up the work, the computer will provide data to integrate both registration and titling information.

All the information on both titles and registration in the secretary's possession will be instantly available, 24 hours a day, to law enforcement agencies.

An aggressive cross-training program will qualify Regititle employees to handle every step of the registration and title process, opening new paths for promotion and employee development.

"All these changes will save time for our employees, for auto dealers, new car buyers, truck owners and the general public," said Howlett. "They also will save money for the taxpayers."

"This office now collects about $9 million a year in title fees and $250 million in registration fees—ten times what it costs to handle the applications and issue the titles and plates. What we collect goes into the state treasury. We will see that the taxpayers get their money's worth in our office."

Explorers restore playground area

Mrs. Ruth Jensen of the Logan Annex Pre-School Center, 24th Street and Logan Avenue needed help in restoring a playground for the children that had been torn up by vandals.

She asked and received help from Explorer Post 10-33, a law enforcement specialty post sponsored by the Granite City Police Department. The playground had been littered with junk and vandals uprooted the tractor tires used to play in.

A donation of cement from the G. H. Sternberg Construction Co. was made and the tires were set in the ground in a more permanent way.

Explorers participating in the service project were: Brad French, Gary Chapman, Steve Fischer, John Busch, Jim Laughlin, Scott Mytias, Norman Slavely and Bruce Gordan. Officer Glenn Wright is advisor to the post.

Attends hospital financial meeting

Jerry L. Bolandis, budget director, of St. Elizabeth Hospital in Granite City is one of 160 hospital financial managers who attended the 1974 Columbus National Institute this month at Ohio State University, Columbus.

The program of study and discussion was sponsored by the Hospital Financial Management Educational Foundation in cooperation with the College of Administrative Science and the Graduate Program in Hospital and Health Services Administration. Seven courses were offered during the six-day session.

The program was designed to expose the health care financial manager to current technical aspects of the accounting profession, advanced management techniques, the art of managing human resources and the behavioral aspects of working as part of a team.

Adults as well as children served by city's bookmobile

By RAY TEVIS

The Granite City Public Library Bookmobile offers library services to local school children. But do you know that the bookmobile offers all its services to adult patrons?

The bookmobile maintains a limited adult fiction and non-fiction circulating collection and provides circulation delivery and pick-up service. Discover the Bookmobile's adult collection when it visits a school near you. You may obtain a copy of the bookmobile's schedule to all elementary schools by telephoning the bookmobile librarian at the GCPL.

On Saturday, Oct. 19, at 2 p.m., a Spook Spectacular will be presented.

The spectacular will feature a "Road Runner" cartoon, "The Bride of Frankenstein" and "Dracula." In addition, a Laurel and Hardy silent classic, "Habeas Corpus," will be shown. In this comedy, a mad scientist hires Stan and Ollie to steal bodies from a cemetery for his experiments.

Paperback books are extremely popular today. Best sellers, classics, science fiction, westerns—all are available in paperback. The many thriller series are here, too—The Assassin, The Avenger, The Executioner, The Lone Wolf, The Revenger and others.

The great wisdom of Charlie Brown also is available. Where else can one find a little psychiatric help from such a friend as Lucy for five cents? Current biographies include "Cavett," the conversationalist's best talk-show hosts, Dick Cavett.

Also new is "My Story" by Marilyn Monroe. This posthumous autobiography has been released for publication by Milton Greene, a friend, confidant and business partner of the screen star.

Gerald W. Getty and James Presley narrate Getty's court life in "Public Defender." Getty, a public defender in Chicago, relates many of his court experiences, and one of the most interesting is his defense of Richard Speck during 1966-1967.

Diane Cleaver discusses the world's cheapest way to build all your own furniture in "The Box Book."

Peter Dickinson's "The Fires of Autumn: Sexual Activity in the Middle and Later Years" is designed for people in those age groups.

Josh Greenfield's and Paul Mazursky's witty new novel, "Harry and Tonto," is here. The motion picture version stars Art Carney.

Diana Young becomes Mrs. Stephen C. Hall

Miss Diana Jean Young became the bride of Stephen C. Hall in a double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 20, performed by the Rev. David T. Richardson at the Third Baptist Church.

Multi-colored bouquets of late summer flowers adorned the altar and blue tapers in branched candelabra provided the setting for the ceremony.

Miss Cheryl Harper presided at the organ and accompanied the Rev. Richardson as he sang several nuptial selections.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Young, Rural Route Three, Collinsville, formerly of Granite City. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, 1215 Clifton St., Collinsville.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose a full length gown of white satin, fashioned by her mother. A lace cape enhanced the fitted bodice and lace edged the Victorian neckline.

Crocheted lace enhanced the cuffs of the full bishop sleeves and defined the natural waistline. A wide gathered flounce encircled the semi-full skirt.

Blue bows trimmed the gown and the Juliet cap holding in place a chapel length veil edged with crocheted lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of blue carnations, white roses and blue baby breath.

Matron of honor Mrs. Sandra

Wiwczarowski and the bridesmaids, Miss Marianne Young, a sister of the bride, and Miss Cheryl Chapman, wore identical gowns of a sheer blue floral print over blue tulle. Their dresses featured round necklines, long sleeves with ruffled cuffs and softly gathered skirts.

Each held a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and pink baby breath.

Joyce Young and Treva Hall, sisters of the bride, served as bridesmaids.

Both wore royal blue crepe dresses.

Ken Hall, brother of the groom, was the best man. Rick Young, a brother of the bride, and John Pierson served as groomsmen.

Dave Shadown and Darryl Carter seated the guests.

Both the rehearsal dinner and the post-wedding reception were held in the church fellowship hall.

After a wedding trip to Tan-Tar-A Resort in the Ozarks, the newly married couple is residing at the Tower Lake Apartments in Edwardsville.

The bride is employed as a medical assistant in Collinsville. She graduated from Collinsville High School and Belleville Area College.

Her husband, also a Collinsville High School graduate, currently is attending Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he is majoring in music performance.

MR. AND MRS. STEPHEN C. HALL. They were united in marriage at the Third Baptist Church. The bride is the former Miss Diana Jean Young, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Young of Collinsville, formerly of Granite City.

Robt. Moske heads Roundtable

The Uniward (Quad-City) district of the Cahokia Mound Council Boy Scouts of America held its monthly Scout Roundtable at Coolidge Junior High School with newly appointed Roundtable Commissioner Robert Moske in charge.

Moske had been serving as an assistant scoutmaster with Troop 5 sponsored by the Nameoki Methodist Church Methodist Men.

Preopening activities included signing in and veterans welcoming the newcomers to the meeting. An awards display and a scouting photograph record also gained attention.

The opening was conducted by Scouts David Copper and Phil DeRuntz of Troop 13 sponsored by St. Elizabeth Church Holy Name Society.

They recited six of the Scout Laws and gave a short talk on each.

District Executive Mark Yehling introduced scouters leading new to the roundtables: Pat Busch, newly appointed Scoutmaster of Troop 5, and Joseph Vaughn, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 21 sponsored by the 1st United Presbyterian Church in Madison, were welcomed. Each new member was given a miniature scout pin.

A prize was won by Dwight Smith, unit commissioner for Pack and Troop 13 and Troop 122 of Wilson School.

Roundtable Commissioner Moske was introduced by Yehling. Moske gave a demonstration in learning scouting techniques. Moske made a simple paper drinking cup and then taught one of the members how to do it. Then the newly trained scouters and Moske taught others who in turn taught others. The demonstration taught the principle of training that anyone knowing a skill can teach others that skill on a one to one basis.

Pat Busch was awarded a prize for learning the quickest and Jack Veizer was given a prize for the most innovative use of the cup.

The training feature of the Roundtable was the Scout Progress Review. The film strip emphasized the importance of valid advancement and decisions by the boys. The film was further reinforced by discussions and actual troop situations.

Another information feature was, "What Makes a Good Scout Camporee?" District Chairman Dr. Thomas Layloff related planning and decisions that may begin six months before the boys enjoy the camporee. Layloff reminded the scoutmasters of the upcoming All-American Camporee at Hazellet State Park at Carlyle Lake.

District Training Chairman Charles Taylor urged scout participation in the Troop Leader Development program to be held at Cahokia Mounds State Park. The training will be held on Oct. 19 and 20. The fee is $1.75 that includes a troop leader development mug.

The Scoutmaster's Minute was given by Commissioner Moske. The minute was devoted to the effective use of the boypower in the Troop. "Boys are our greatest resource; they can do most any job if given the chance," Moske stated.

The October Scout Roundtable was closed by Scouts DeRuntz and Copper who related the meaning of the six new scout laws. After the closing the scout leaders met with the Cub Scouting council members who also meet at Coolidge.

The Quad-City Roundtables are a monthly training feature for Cub and Boy Scout leaders. They feature information and fun that can be used in pack or troop meetings and are held at Coolidge Junior High School, 3103 Madison Ave., in Granite City, the second Tuesday of each month, at 7:30 p.m. and conclude at 9 p.m.

Nuts, seeds sought for nurseries

Press-Record Springfield Bureau—Now is the time for all good environmentalists to do something natty. Or seedy, as the case may be. The Division of Forestry in the Illinois Department of Conservation is looking (as it does each year) for nuts and seeds to restock its nurseries.

Presently, the state nurseries are raising 50 different species of shrubs and trees, but it takes a lot of tree fruits to produce far few seedlings.

Allan S. Mickelson, assistant state forester, said the state's various nurseries sell seven to eight million seedlings annually, and thereby contribute $100,000 to $150,000 each year to the general fund.

Since there are few, if any, places that a nursery operator can simply place an order for seeds as a farmer or gardener would, the division must try to find its own, and volunteers have been great help in the past, Mickelson said.

Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, women's groups, garden clubs, conservationists, naturalists or anybody else interested can help find seeds, he said, adding that the division publishes a simple handbook which shows drawings of the leaves, twigs and fruit of each of 20 trees which can be "harvested" with comparative ease.

The booklet also tells the name, describes the species, gives the places it is most likely to be found—ridge tops, bottomlands, north and east sides of ravines, and such—and offers tips on when, where and how to collect the seeds.

In cases where special care is needed in handling, storing or shipping them, these instructions are also shown.

There is a great deal of loss in volume between the initial harvest and the final yield, Mickelson said.

For example, it takes 100,000 white oak seeds to produce 3,000 to 4,000 pounds of white oak acorns, and 100 pounds of autumn olive fruit produces only about 10 pounds of seed.

Copies of the "Seed Collection Manual" can be obtained from the conservation department's division of forestry in Springfield, or from any of the department's district offices. Regional or district offices for northeastern Illinois are located at the Morton Arboretum at Lisle. Those in other sections of the state include Anna, Cambridge, Centralia, Charleston, Effingham, Fairfield, Harrisburg, Havana, Hillsboro, Jerseyville, Macomb, Mt. Carroll, Murphysboro, Olney, Oregon, Pekin, Pittsfield, Princeton, Shelbyville and Sparta.

Though not all Illinois trees bear seeds in the same season—some ripen in the spring or summer, and at least one in the winter—the present and coming weeks will be appropriate to seek seeds or nuts from the sugar maple, pecan, shag bark hickory, red bud, persimmon, black walnut, red cedar, tulip tree, sweet gum, sycamore, white oak, pin oak, northern red oak and the bald cypress.

In a foreword, the booklet notes that if more volunteers will help collect the seeds, the state will be able to maintain the low cost of its seedlings, there will be less nursery labor having to use time for collection instead of maintenance, more species can be raised and therefore available to the public, more native species can be stressed, and seed production areas can be established for easy collection and high quality seed.

TELEPHONE FOR THE DEAF more properly known as the Teletypewriter for the Deaf (TTY) in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hudson, 74 Shirwin Drive, which provides communication by telephone for the deaf for the first time. Mr. Hudson, who is deaf, is shown at the keyboard of the machine typing his call which is recorded on tape at the top of the machine.

'Telephone' new aid to deaf

By DONNA HARTWICK
Press-Record Staff Writer

The invention and manufacture of a device known as the Teletypewriter for the Deaf (TTY) is a welcome innovation for those who cannot hear, by providing them with the opportunity to communicate for the first time by telephone.

Such a machine has been installed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hudson, 74 Shirwin Drive, and now affords Mr. Hudson with a means to contact his family by phone and gives him a sense of security inasmuch as he now may reach the proper authorities in case of an emergency.

The TTY is a simplified teletype machine by which the operator may type messages to another person who, in turn, replies and the conversation is recorded on a tape for reading by the sender.

Anyone in possession of a TTY can dial a number by phone to another who has a similar machine. Both are required to type their conversation, which is relayed on the line.

Drives and campaigns for better educational facilities and therapy centers as well as extensively and modern planned programs in schools or vocational training establishments.

ments for the handicapped have spiraled during the last decade and given hope to those who otherwise would be unable to receive an education and become financially independent.

For the people who have lost through illness, accident or birth defect, one or more of the five senses that so many people take for granted, there are many advances to be made to provide adequate assistance for the ones who work and live under a handicap.

Communication is the most difficult for the deaf, even though they may have received an education at private schools.

With this in mind, Robert H. Weitbrecht invented a terminal unit in the spring of 1964 and the first public demonstration of experimental TTY's was given in Salt Lake City by the Communications Committee, Oral Deaf Adults Section, of the Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf.

Continued development and testing over long distance telephone lines, using old Western Union machines, covered the fall and winter months of 1964.

Throughout the years, more machines were developed and placed in homes, business places and, more important, in police stations, creating a network of communication lines for the deaf. The first overseas call made in 1970 between the Philippine Association of the Deaf in Manila and the National Association of the Deaf meeting in Minneapolis.

Western Union will provide a TTY machine, free of charge, to any deaf or hard-of-hearing person, but the receiver is obligated to pay the installation charges which amount to about $200.

The box which cradles the phone and has a light for attention of the deaf, costs $150, and the additional $45 is for the installation of the TTY and phone connection. The TTY stands about 45 inches high and is approximately two and a half feet wide.

At present, there are approximately 500 such machines stored in a St. Louis warehouse because most families who need the machines do not have funds for the installation.

The installation fee includes becoming a member of Teletypewriters for the Deaf, Inc., and give them an International Telephone Directory of the Deaf listing phone numbers of individuals or organizations who have the same machine.

At the present time there is a voluntary church-related agency known as Contact-St. Louis, to handle an answering service along with police, fire, medical emergencies.

Leon Hudson was born with perfect hearing and at the age of two became the victim of spinal meningitis which left him deaf. He was sent to the Jacksonville (Ill.) School for the Deaf when he was six and lived there until he completed his education through high school.

He became proficient in lip reading and manual communication, using the hands in what is commonly referred to as sign language.

After his marriage to his wife, Mary Lou, who is not deaf and is a teacher at Lake School, Mr. Hudson began working at the downtown Hudson Jewelry Store, a family owned enterprise.

Recently he trained to become a certified Accutron technician at a school sponsored by the Buvo Co. He was the only deaf student of the 75 enrolled and one of four who successfully graduated. He now is one of 700 certified technicians in the United States.

Because of his handicap, his wife attended the school with him to assist in translating the courses.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hudson teach classes at the local YMCA to hearing people who desire a way to talk with those who cannot hear. Mrs. Hudson, through untiring efforts, has succeeded in convincing Channel 9 to air news programs with captions for the deaf on Monday and Wednesday nights at 11 p.m.

Channel 9 also provides movies with captions so the deaf also may enjoy movies they otherwise would never understand by viewing.

"We are now working toward two more goals for the deaf community by trying to place a TTY machine in a central location in the Quad-Cities where they can place a call if necessary, and to hopefully have a volunteer program to take calls such as the Contact-St. Louis organization, Mrs.

Hudson reported. Another phase to help the deaf would be to get the long distance telephone rates reduced because each person who has a TTY machine is not a speed typist and the calls then become too costly.

"Many people who make long distance calls may talk for a long time and have an expensive phone bill but can you imagine trying to type a message by the 'hunt and peck' system while the toll ticks on," Mrs. Hudson said.

"The St. Louis Deaf Messenger can be dialed at any time for announcements of meetings, births, church programs and captioned films to be aired, and the dates and times for such events, but the call to St. Louis is not toll free.

There is a newer invention along the same concept of the teletypewriter which is a portable TTY and called MCM. This compact machine weighs five pounds and is small enough to fit into a woman's purse. The MCM is designed for the user to attach it to a regular telephone at any location and make his call, but the cost of the latest device is $600.

The Hudsons have two daughters, Brenda, 13, and Lila, who is 11 years old. They both are able to communicate with their father by manual communication.

Mrs. Hudson is actively involved in any organization for the benefit of the deaf and will speak at any club, church or civic meeting to explain the programs and acquaint the members with advances made in these outstanding electronic inventions for the deaf.

Moses W. Harrison II, 300 Sumner Blvd., Collinsville, is one of three Democrats running without opposition for election as a circuit judge on Nov. 5. Harrison is running in the entire Madison-Bond Counties circuit for the post formerly held by the late Judge James O. Monroe Jr.

John L. DeLaurenti, Rural Route Two, Poca, also a Democrat, is unopposed for election as a circuit judge in the Bond County portion. The vacancy is that of former judge Fred D. Meyer.

Harrison currently serves as a circuit judge by appointment. Born March 30, 1932, in Collinsville, he attended public schools in Collinsville for 12 years.

He received a bachelor of arts degree from Colorado College in 1954, majoring in political science, and an L.L.B. degree from Washington University, St. Louis, in 1958.

During the time he was in college and law school, he worked in fields unrelated to the law, including restaurant work, cubing concrete blocks and driving trucks. He holds an honorable withdrawal card from the Teamsters' union.

Upon graduation from law school, Harrison took the bar examination in Missouri and Illinois and was admitted to practice in both states in 1958. He maintained a law office in Collinsville from the date of graduation from law school until Sept. 4, 1973, when he was appointed as a circuit judge in the Illinois Supreme Court and retired from the law firm of Harrison, Barick and Cadogan.

"Through my years in practice, I have attempted to be active in the organized bar," he says. "I believe all lawyers have a duty and obligation to attempt to serve and improve the profession and the administration of justice."

"I am a past president of the Madison County Bar Association and served on the board of governors of the Illinois State Bar Association. "I have been a member for many years of the American Judicature Society, American Bar Association, American Trial Lawyers Association, St. Louis Bar Association, St. City Bar Association, Madison County Bar Association and Illinois State Bar Association. "Prior to assuming my duties as a judge, I endeavored to be involved with the problems of people with whom I was in contact in a non-professional way."

"I was the senior warden of Christ Episcopal Church in Collinsville and a member of the vestry. I was a member of the board of the Collinsville Lions Club and secretary of the Maryville Colonial Nursing Home."

"My family consists of my wife, Sharon, and my two sons, Clarence, age 9, and Luke, age 6."

"Since my appointment I have been serving the Circuit Court in Division 6, Granite City."

"It has become clear to me that, truly, the last stronghold of liberty for the individual is in the courts."

"Also, if we are to have a democratic system that is stable, we must have courts that are respected by the people."

"I am aware of the tremendous problems that face our courts today. It may be that there has been no other time in the history of our country that our concepts of justice and an independent judiciary have been met by so many and diverse sources of challenge and criticism."

"However, I am convinced that our individual rights as citizens will prevail through a strong judiciary, and I would like to offer and use whatever abilities I may have to further that purpose."

JOHN GITCHOFF

John Gitchoff, 6 Walnut, Glen Carbon, a Democrat, is a candidate in the Madison County portion for election Nov. 5 as circuit judge of the Third Judicial Circuit.

He seeks the position of I. H. Streeter III that he currently holds by appointment. Born Nov. 9, 1925, Gitchoff was admitted to the Illinois Bar in 1951 and the Missouri Bar in 1952.

From 1951 to 1971 he served as a trial lawyer, handling civil and criminal cases. He became a circuit judge Sept. 20, 1971, and currently is the presiding criminal judge.

He attended Madison public schools, graduating from Madison High School in 1943, and served as a seaman in the U.S. Navy in the Pacific theater during World War II. His Naval service included two Jims, Okinawa and the Philippines.

Gitchoff attended St. Louis University and the University of Missouri, obtaining the degrees of juris doctor and bachelor of laws from the University of Missouri School of Law in 1951. His church affiliation is with the St. Trinity Orthodox Church.

Former chairman of the Tri-City Heart Fund, he also has aided other service groups. A past president of the Madison County Bar Association, he also has been a member of the Tri-City Bar Association, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Ainal Shrine, Temple, American Legion and Masonic order.

His hobbies are golf and fishing. He lectures on criminal law at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Gitchoff was a member of a Granite City law firm and was corporation counsel of the City of Madison until October 1971 when he accepted the appointment as a circuit judge. His civic service included the chairmanship of the Madison County Building Commission. He was chosen by the Illinois Supreme Court after the retirement of Judge Streeter.

Gitchoff had been a member of the Madison city legal staff since 1962 and was head of the County Building Commission since it was created in 1964. He was the senior partner in the law firm of Callis, Plicoff and Gitchoff at the time he advanced to the judicial bench.

He seeks a full six-year term in this year's balloting. A native of Granite City and a lifelong resident of the Quad-City area, Judge Gitchoff was licensed to practice in the Illinois and Missouri courts and in the U.S. District and U.S. Supreme courts.

He currently heads the Criminal Court Division of the Judicial Circuit.

Conservation office opened

The new Department of Conservation regional office at Alton was opened formally with dedicatory ceremonies Wednesday.

Conservation Director Tony Dean said the two-story office at 34 W. Broadway, formerly occupied by Alton Home Savings and Loan Association, is the first of five regional headquarters to be established throughout the state to serve as a basis for regional supervision of Departmental field divisions—Fisheries, Wildlife Resources, Parks and Memorials, Law Enforcement and Forestry—and to provide citizens with easier access to information on departmental sites, activities and services.

Dean and State Sen. Sam Vadalabene conducted the ribbon-cutting. Area businessmen, governmental officials and divisional personnel also were on hand.

Dean said the Alton facility, designated Region 4 headquarters, will be the administrative center for field personnel working within a 25-county area bounded by the Mississippi River on the west, to Logan, Christian and Clinton counties on the east, Randolph County to the south, and Hancock on the north.

Establishment of regional offices is part of the Conservation Department's recently implemented reorganization program which is expected to improve internal cooperation and communication in the field and create a more responsive regional information outlet for the public, Director Dean explained.

Staff at the new headquarters will be able to provide information and answer questions the public may have concerning conservation. The telephone number for the new headquarters is (618) 462-1181.

SIUE professor urges people learn to hang onto dollars

The thinking of economists in Washington today is not so different from their thinking in the thirties, only in reverse, according to Louis Drake, professor of economics in the School of Business at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

"In the thirties we tried to raise prices by destroying property and setting rules to limit production, thereby lowering the value of the dollar. Today our national administration suggests we speed up productivity to offset the decline in the value of the dollar," Drake said.

"It is characteristic of our free enterprise system that collectively we drive first in one direction and then in the opposite, because enthusiasm for one direction peters out. We drive stocks up until we become apprehensive, then we drive them down again until we get bored with the process," Drake said.

What is needed now, he believes, is a renewal of people's determination to hang on to their dollars and a worldwide revision of how much a dollar is worth.

Drake feels the U.S. economy could be righting itself, not because of what is coming out of Washington, but because people are being nudged out of the market as buyers.

Drake says three factors indicate that some degree of balance may be returning to the U.S. economy. He says these include the slow rate of growth of the money supply, the spread of poverty among older people on fixed incomes which will price them out of the market as buyers, and the realization by stock and bond owners that they are poorer now than a year ago, which may cause them to revise buying habits.

"We may be on the brink of a slowdown of buying, which few people can foresee right now. Such a slowdown would be a good thing. It would show that our money system has some kind of balance," Drake said.

Communications study at SIUE

Horst Albrecht, lecturer and supervisor of Ministerial Study Seminary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Germany, is spending this week at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville learning new concepts in religious communications.

Albrecht was sent by the Lutheran World Federation to work with John Rider, professor of mass communications at SIUE, considered an authority by his colleagues on the religious aspects of communications.

Albrecht has been granted a three-month study program in the field of Christian communications and some aspects of theological education in the U.S. He also has a scholarship from the Ruhr University Bochum for next year for an inaugural dissertation in the field of mass communication research related to a community study project.

In America, Albrecht hopes to see how students get their field experiences and how they are led to reflect them. One of his concerns is how churches in the country share in the communication of the society and how their ministers are prepared for that work.

He hopes to pass along some of the methods of teaching mass communication in the U.S. to future ministers in Germany.

Regulations on unleaded gas

Those planning to store unleaded gasoline on a farm for a new car or new pickup truck weighing less than 6,000 pounds are being urged to check with their petroleum supplier about storage regulations.

Special precautions must be taken to protect the unleaded gasoline supply from contamination. Existing tanks may be used, for instance, but only after a flushing procedure.

Unleaded gas also requires a smaller size nozzle on the pump to prevent leaded gas from being used in vehicles requiring unleaded gasoline.

The caps on tanks containing unleaded gasoline must be painted white with a black "X" to clearly identify the special supply and comply with industry regulations.

LOOT TOOL TRAILER
A G. H. Sternberg and Co. construction tool trailer on Klein Street by Venice Homes in Venice was opened after a lock was broken off the door. Officials did not know what had been stolen.

Wins award for SIUE movie film

Don Magary, head of motion picture productions for University News Services at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, has won a C-30 award from the Information Film Producers of America for a new film on the SIUE School of Business.

The film "Design for Success" tells the story of the off-campus programs operated by the School of Business at Military Airlift Command bases throughout the United States and in the Azores.

The award will be presented at the IFPPA's fifteenth annual awards banquet Friday in San Diego. Magary has won two previous Cincy awards for films produced for SIUE.

Criminal trespass charge is filed

Gary W. Whitworth, 23, of 2900 Buxton Ave., was charged with criminal trespass at 9:30 p.m. Friday when arrested by officers at Superior Auto Body, 15th Street and Iowa streets.

Whitworth allegedly was found lying on the front floor of an auto parked inside a fenced area at the auto body firm. He was released on $100 cash bail.

Miss Jean Carrillo and Michael Bevington are wed

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Jean Frances Carrillo and Michael Van Bevington of Granite City in an early evening ceremony on Oct. 5 at the Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Fairmont City, Ill.

Officiating at the double ring service at 6:30 was the Rev. Lloyd P. Misho. A program of wedding music was provided by organist Miss Helen Harper.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carrillo Sr., 3811 Locust St., Fairmont City, Ill. Parents of the groom are Mrs. Vera Bailey of South Carolina and Van Bevington of Kewanee, Ill.

For her wedding, the bride wore a silk organza gown. Gathered ruffles of Chantilly lace created the pinfold bodice made with a high neckline and long, sheer sleeves with wide lace cuffs.

Scalloped lace edged the redingote skirt that extended into a chapel train. She wore a halo of fresh flowers to secure a lace bordered mantilla veil and she held a bouquet of white roses and baby breath intermingled with greenery.

Mrs. Dennis Carpenter, matron of honor, chose a long sleeveless gown and a matching jacket fashioned of apricot voile, embellished with white dots.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Gargis, sister of the bride, Mrs. William Heap, Mrs. Joseph Carrillo Jr., a sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Elaine Rice, appeared in lime green dresses made in identical style to the honor attendant's frock.

A long white dress trimmed with apricot ribbons was worn by the flower girl, Christina Lynn Hargis, a niece of the bride.

Douglas E. Gonzalez, the bride's nephew, served as ringbearer.

The groom chose his brother, Dennis Bevington, as best man. Groomsman and ushers included Bill Arnold, Joe Manso, Jim Mufio, Mike Tomaszewski, Joe Carrillo Jr. and David Lilly.

Andrea Gonzalez and Shelley Carrillo, nieces of the bride, distributed ceremonial programs to the guests.

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Bevington received guests at a reception at the American Legion Post 961 in Fairmont City.

The couple will reside in Granite City.

A graduate of St. Teresa Academy, East St. Louis, the former Miss Carrillo is employed as a secretary by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., St. Louis.

The groom is a graduate of East St. Louis High School and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. He works for General Electric Credit Corp.
